Member Orientation
Jill Anderson, President- Elect

BC Rotary Club President-Elect Jill Anderson continued with Member Orientation on Monday. She presented information on logging into and using two Rotary resources accessible to members. One is the International Rotary Website at myrotary.com and the other is the District and Club Data Base at dacdb.com.

There is a big Rotary world out there and it is yours if you want it. To access a pdf of the Power Point Anderson presented click HERE. You will be asked to sign in to dacdb.com to access the file. If you prefer to have a copy sent to you email Rita at rita@ritamcpahil.com.

Anderson also reminded us that this is the beginning of the Rotary Year and now is the time to sign up for a committee. The Club is especially in need of people for the Programs Committee and the Membership Committee. Remember many hands make light work!

Rotary District 6360 Foundation Raffle.

Jacque Jennings-Carter explained that raffle tickets for the Annual District 6360 Raffle are now available at $25 each. The money raised comes back to the clubs in the form of grants. Each Club is allocated a number of tickets to sell based on membership as of April 2022. Our Club was assigned 46 raffle numbers based on a membership of 62.

The winning tickets are drawn on Tuesday, October 25th at the Annual Foundation Dinner. All Rotarians are welcome to attend the Annual Dinner. Tickets for the Annual Dinner require a separate purchase and are not included with the purchase of a Raffle number. Grand Prize is $1,000. Several additional prizes are $750, $500, $250 and $100. A total of $5,000 is given away to the many lucky winners.

Jennings-Carter would like to see our Club be the first to achieve 100% in sales this year in District 6360. At our meeting on Monday (18th) we "sold" 34 of our 46 assigned Raffle numbers. We only have 12 tickets left!

Donna Gray will have the Raffle number list. If you have made your commitment, please see her to pay. If you have not made your commitment yet, please see her to do that.

Make checks payable to: Rotary District 6360 Foundation Raffle. No cash, please. Please do not make your check out to our Club. Questions? Call Jacque Jennings-Carter, 269.779.2900.

Community Service Project August 1 at 365 Urban Farm Stand

Community Service Committee Chair Teresa Allen says, "We will be "weeding" in the gardens so plan to play in the dirt!" After a quick lunch, members will help tend the rows of vegetables growing at the Farm. It is also a chance to check out the Farm Stand and see what is available. Bring your wallet if interested. The map below indicates where to park, right off Michigan Ave before you get to the main entrance to Leila Arboretum.
