

“The Mirror”

CHARLOTTE ROTARY CLUB – 10/08/2019

GREETER: Will Saint Amour greeted us.

INVOCATION: Tyler Pray.

SINGING: Greg Guetschow led singing. He began with an attempt to lead a classic from the group Cream with the assistance of Vinnie Ferris. However most of us had no idea what the actual lyrics for the song “White Room” were and those of us who knew were humming the tune in several different keys. Next Greg pulled up “All Hail to Rotary” in key of Bb which everybody knew. And we finished with the song “Happy Birthday” for Bob Leeser.

VISITING ROTARIANS: None.

GUESTS: Lee Wheaton introduced his Grandsons Jackson and Cole Ritter.

JR. ROTARIANS: Our new Jr. Rotarians for October are Savannah Brown and Zac Carlson.

Savannah is the daughter of Rhonda and Robert Brown. She is active in National Honor Society, Student Council (Vice President), Key Club, Interact (Secretary), Marching Band and Symphony Band. Her Community Service includes teaching Sunday School, Relay for Life and Red Cross Blood Drive. Her plans after high school are to study Forensic Psychology at Spring Arbor College.

Zac is the son of Tracy and Randy Carlson. He is involved in National Honor Society (President), Student Council, PALs, Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Marching and Symphony Bands, Varsity Football and Track and Field. He has volunteered with several kids clubs at Washington Elementary and as a church camp counselor. Following graduation he would like to study Archaeology. His choice of college is undecided at this time.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- ★ Sam Davis, Acting as resident filling in for Chuck Archer announced the Fund-raising committee meeting next Tuesday.

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT: Jim Cicorelli started by opening his spotlight address up for questions from the crowd. Jim attended St. Mary’s school, graduated from Charlotte High School and married Terri (Austin) When asked about his passion for golf he mentioned that he is frustrated by the game, he just enjoys driving the golf cart. Another question led to explaining his short lived “Work to get fit” routine with Paulty Tomasek which was where they would workout then hit Subway. So cute. He also shared his passion for developing Charlotte’s version of excitement around the high school football program. Chic then finished by imparting words of advice that he has followed for the growth of his businesses, and his quest to help filling gaps in the community. 360 days great, 5 days, not so great!

Next: Mary June Garn

50 / 50: Dr. Bob drew—079373 Lance Roe won $33.00.

SGT-AT-ARMS: Vince Ferris garnered funds with the dreaded barrel. Lance Roe paid his winner's fee. Dr. Bob paid a "glad to be here" dollar for his birthday. Chuck's presidential dollar was paid by Sam Davis on his behalf. No sports report was given because the Spartans didn't do well. Vinnie then levied fines for newspaper appearances: Paul Tomasek was fined for detracting from the picture with his wife in the newspaper, Keisha Howe was also fined $1 for her many pictures announcing her selection as this year's Millenium of the Year by the Chamber of Commerce. Tyler paid dad Joe E.'s fine for the announcement of grandpa Joe Sr.'s induction into the Charlotte High School Sports Hall of fame, and Tyler also was fined for a flaw in his last copy of the Mirror.

PROGRAM: Greg Guetschow introduced local author, Greg Nitchman, clergy, preacher/author. His book is the culmination of 18 years of his research on the 2nd coming of Christ. This was sparked by his curiosity about the widely varied interpretations that predicted the end of the world after January 1, 2000, or Y2K. His first^t version was 365 pages developed over 18 years as he ran 2 churches, planted 2 churches, and helped with Hurricane Katrina relief. He then whittled it down to 70 pages so anybody can read it without need of a theological degree to understand it. The basis of the book is "What do we need to know for us to be ready? Watch and be ready and live as though He is coming tomorrow." Greg was a very passionate speaker on the topic and held the attention of the entire group. He also spoke of his limited knowledge of marketing for the book and has resorted to online marketing through gregnitchman.com and self-promotion and through his church connections.

NEXT MEETING – October 15, 2019 – Sgt-at-Arms Committee, Rick Todd from Crosswalk Teen Center will talk about improvements made with money from the Duck Race.
