

“The Mirror”

CHARLOTTE ROTARY CLUB – 4/09/2019

GREETER: None.

INVOCATION: Eric Crandall provided the invocation.

SINGING: Jason Vanderstelt led us in “ROTARY”, and “Don’t Fence Me In”. “Happy Birthday” was sung to Doug Buck, Jim Cicorelli and Tyler Pray. We also sang “Hello Grandpa” to Joe Pray honoring the arrival of the 2nd female in the Pray family in 150 years, Kinley McKenna Pray, born to youngest son McLain and his wife Sarah.

VISITING ROTARIANS: Jim Alden from Delton, Rich Ames from Hillsdale, Heidi McNaughton from Lansing, and our speakers, Alexandra Souser and Camron Gnass also from Lansing.

GUESTS: None.

JR. ROTARIANS: Our Jr. Rotarians for March are Lauryn Moubray and Austin Sommer.

Lauryn is the daughter of Kathy and Bill Moubray. She has a 3.97 GPA and is active in National Honor Society, Student Council, Key Club, Tennis (Captain), Golf, and Flight Club. She has volunteered with Relay for Life, Charlotte Recycling Center, Capital Area Humane Society and the Red Cross. Following high school, Lauryn plans to attend Grand Valley State University to become a Neonatal Nurse.

Austin is the son of Jessica and Jerry Sommer. He is on the golf team and enjoys snowmobiling, water skiing, wake boarding and downhill skiing. Austin has volunteered with Celebrate Charlotte, Rotary’s Duck Race and the HGB Gala. After graduation, Austin plans to attend Ferris State University to study Construction Management or Architecture.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

50 / 50: Amy Gilson sold the tickets and collected $80.00. March Jr. Rotarian Maleia Hale was the lucky winner and took home half of it, $40.

SGT-AT-ARMS: Paul Tomasek, aka Pablo, roamed the room collecting dollars. He fined Mike as well as Jim Cicorelli but not sure why; he punished Jerry Sommer for having his son there as a Jr. Rotarian, Doug Buck as a way of welcoming him back, and Jason Vanderstelt for using the “P” word, Doug also offered a happy dollar and Heidi McNaughton donated one in honor of the Spartans being in the final four.

PROGRAM: Jason Vanderstelt, representing the Public Image Committee, introduced our speaker, Camron Gnass. Camron founded and directs the Capital City Film Festival. It was founded in 2010 as a way of promoting the arts in the Lansing area. This year there were 500 films and musical performances submitted, of which 150 will be used this year. This years festival will be from April 11-21 in various venues in Lansing. Performances are $5.00 each. They are looking for volunteers. While Camron could not give scientific information on the economic impact on the Lansing area, who had some examples of what a positive financial impact the event had.
