SINGING: Chuck Archer led us in “All Hail to Rotary” and “April Showers”.

VISITING ROTARIANS: None.

GUESTS: Yvonne Ridge and Lisa Barna.

JR. ROTARIANS: Our Jr. Rotarians for April are Lauryn Moubray and Austin Sommer.

Lauryn is the daughter of Kathy and Bill Moubray. She has a 3.97 GPA and is active in National Honor Society, Student Council, Key Club, Tennis (Captain), Golf, and Flight Club. She has volunteered with Relay for Life, Charlotte Recycling Center, Capital Area Humane Society and the Red Cross. Following high school, Lauryn plans to attend Grand Valley State University to become a Neonatal Nurse.

Austin is the son of Jessica and Jerry Sommer. He is on the golf team and enjoys snowmobiling, water skiing, wake boarding and downhill skiing. Austin has volunteered with Celebrate Charlotte, Rotary’s Duck Race and the HGB Gala. ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- ★ Next week we will be at CPAC to hear the CHS Jazz Band as they prepare for Band Bounce. Bring your spouse or friends (or both) for this always entertaining early peek at the show!

50 / 50: Tyler Pray manned the bucket, Matt Rush drew the ticket, and Yvonne Ridge walked away with $30.00.

SGT-AT-ARMS: Amy served as the enforcer and nailed Doug for stealing a pair of glasses (allegedly). Chuck was fined for something and I am not sure what it was, but it may have had something to do with the singing. Mike was fined a dollar with no explanation. Jim Cicorelli was fined for wearing a combination of horizontal and vertical stripes. Yvonne offered up one dollar for winning 30. Jerry Sommer was fined for something that was too cruel to mention. Brian Lautzenhauser was fined for being a nice guy. (No good deed goes unpunished) Chuck Grundstrom offered a happy dollar for a couple of nice articles in The Rotarian.

PROGRAM: Lee Wheaton introduced Charlotte Schools interim superintendent, Rich Ames. Rich was at the meeting to inform us about the May 7th bond proposal. The last bond vote garnered 8000 votes and failed by 49. The new proposal is a couple million less because of the decision to remove the buses and Weymouth remodel. The school district received a lot of feedback from a survey taken that was helpful in preparation for this latest effort. We were informed that because Charlotte has inadequate courts we can not host home tennis matches. The bond includes 8 new tennis courts. There is a lot of information available on CPSbond2019.com.

NEXT MEETING – April 23, 2019 – AT CPAC – Jazz Band
