Listen and Learn... Recap of Speakers at GLARC November Weekly Meetings

For the past 20 years, Sherry Brockway has been committed to eliminating racism, empowering women and fighting against domestic violence and sexual assault through her work with the YWCA Emergency Response Team.

Evan McCoy of Junior Achievement helps students reach the new Personal Financial Graduation Requirement. Their K-12 program teaches work readiness, financial literacy and entrepreneurship.

Tom Thinness, Recruitment, Marketing and Outreach Director of the College of Aviation at Western Michigan, says demand for aviation is waaaay up! 50% of applicants are accepted. One of their new students is really named Maverick!

GLARC member, Sharon Wherry shared her World Polio Day experience in India on a recent episode of "All Stories Matter," hosted by Marvinetta Woodley-Penn of Global Girls Inc.

The Kellogg Elementary Outdoor Classroom was formally dedicated today, with a ribbon-cutting ceremony attended by enthusiastic students. Funding for this initiative was partially provided by the Gull Lake Area Rotary Club through a District Rotary Grant.

GLARC is proud to be a sponsor of the My Guy and Glow Party, which is a fundraiser for the RACC.

Rotarians enjoyed a hot potato lunch with the students at Gateway Academy. It was a great opportunity to chat with the students about their future plans.

Rotarians honoring Veterans that served our nation at our annual luncheon held at Richland Lanes. Thank you to all who served.

Thanksgiving food baskets donated to the Richland Pantry.
