Recap of October 29th Meeting

By David L Pruneau

Halloween begins at this week's Rotary meeting

It was a scary start to this week's Brighton Rotary meeting. Just look at the witch that visited the meeting. If that doesn't scare you, nothing will. Along with the witch, there were a lot of laughs, games and cookies, Lots of cowboys and one Indian (Bill Anderson). The big game was the Halloween Feud, a version of the TV game. The winners were Mark Newman and Carol Bullion-Mincy. Many, many cookies were provided by Mary Beth Reigner. Cookies alone were worth the price of admission.

Announcements

Reminder - There will not be a club meeting next week, but there will be a social hour get together at Bourbons next Tuesday from 4:30pm to 6:30pm. Cover is $10 and drinks and food are included. Such a deal. Don't miss out!

Planning for Turkey Bingo continues. $900 worth of sponsors have been secured. Save the date of November 14 from 6pm-8pm.

Pete thanked the Rotary Raiders for the latest ramp build. A long day, but well worth it.

If you have coats for the Bountiful Harvest Coat Drive for Bountiful Harvest, they can still be dropped off at the library this week.

Turkey meal delivery will take place on November 26, with meal assembly that morning. More details to come.
