Birthdays

BE THE INSPIRATION

If you were not at Rotary today we missed you.....

Today was a very busy day at Rotary. After our meal, the Pledge Allegiance to our great flag, and the Rotary Four Way Test, we were led by Lee Johnson in a prayer. The song leader was Jim Flynn who brought words to the song "The Ballad of Jed Clampet" aka "The Beverly Hillbilly Song". There was no piano to assist so you can imagine what it sounded like.

"Happy Bucks" was quite popular today as many members shared there happy thoughts.

Trent Cox shared his PETS (which is President Elect training) experience this past weekend and said the training was excellent, and "cool people".

President Wilder complimented Trent on being recognized by the Galesburg Chamber as one of the top 20 over 40 leaders in the community.

President Wilder advised the club that at last week's board meeting it was decided to keep the usual Paul Harris Award giving circle, that there will be a new giving circle that will benefit our club's foundation. It was also mentioned the name of the award be named after the founder of our Rotary Club Max Goodsill.

President Wilder announced there is a need for a chair for the "Adopt of Highway" committee.

Dot Hopkins and Bridgette Teel announced we are well on our President Wilder then read a letter from Rotary International about the Rotary International Endowment Fund and how important it is to make RI a benefactor.

Cynthia Heather Receives International Recognition

The daughter of a past Rotarian, Reed Robertson, was presented with an award from Rotary International. Cynthia knew what Rotary meant to her father Reed Robertson, who passed away in October of 2018 and wanted to give an endowment in his name as a benefactor.

Cynthia said she was following in her father's footsteps.

Welcome To Another New Rotary Member

The next order of business was an induction of a new member. Stacy Rucker read "A Rotary Minute" and talked about the Rotary Park Project back in 1974. After the minute, Gary Ryner read the bio of the new member Dr Amanda Nichols. After the reading President Wilder welcomed Amanda into the club with a Four Way Test plaque and other materials.

Dr Amanda Nichols is a Chiropractor at the Galesburg Wellness Center.
