Program for July 25: Rotary Youth Exchange

Rotary Youth Exchange advances Rotary International's mission of world peace through understanding. Bill Lair from the Charleston Rotary Club will share personal experiences and anecdotes from his thirty years of working with Rotary Youth Exchange students. He will discuss the benefits to Rotary clubs, communities, and participants. After a two-year hiatus due to the COVID pandemic, Champaign Rotary wants to reboot this valuable program. Come to hear how you can become involved! Janet Ellis-Nelson will introduce the program.

NOTE: This meeting is expected to take place in-person at the Holiday Inn Champaign. It will also be offered online, via Zoom.

July Social: Krannert Uncorked!

By Lauren Gramly on Saturday, July 9, 2022

Please join us for our July social, taking place on Thursday, July 28th at the Krannert Performing Arts Center's Uncorked event. This fun night of wine, music, and kinship will be taking place at Krannert's "Stage 5" space, and the event begins at 5 pm. July 28th's featured musical artists are Bourema "Ibrahim" Ouedraogo, Jason Finkelman, and The Chickadee Sermon.

Per the Krannert website:

At 5pm, Bourema "Ibrahim" Ouedraogo and Jason Finkelman, our artistic director of global arts performance initiatives, pair up to offer music with West African/Burkina Faso origins. Ouedraogo, guitarist and lead vocalist, grew up in West Africa and identifies strongly with his African culture. Finkelman accompanies him playing many different and unique instruments.

Then at 7pm, The Chickadee Sermon, a five-piece comfort folk act, takes the stage with a sound that emphasizes vocal harmony and delicate instrumentation with acoustic guitars, banjo, string bass, and melodica. They play original songs as well as traditional music and cover artists such as Jerry Garcia, John Hartford, Emmylou Harris, John Prine, and Bob Dylan.

Uncorked is a wonderful community event, and we hope to see you on July 28th!
