Presidents Message

By Matthew Kubik

Fellow Rotarians,

Our July 11 dinner meeting will be a very special evening event as we celebrate our year of service and embark on a new Rotary Year. We will meet at 6:00 pm at the Elston complex on Detroit Street. New officers and directors will be inducted. We will also celebrate and induct our many new members. We will recognize our tradition of service as we stand under the magnificent Grafton Mural donated by the Rotary Club of Michigan City in 1925.

RSVP PLEASE by clicking here.

What is the personal value of service? Overall, the personal value of service lies in its ability to enrich one's life, foster connections, and contribute positively to the world. It's not just about the act itself, but also about the personal growth and fulfillment that comes from giving to others and making a difference in their lives. Many of us find that Rotary is where we find both personal growth and fulfillment, knowing that our individual contributions are increased through group effort.

At our July 11 meeting we want to recognize ALL the service our members provide to the community. Living the ethic of "Service Above Self" means that besides our Rotary membership many of us serve our community in so many other ways. What are your service activities?

Please send your information to Matt at president@mcrotary.org

During our Directors Meeting last week we did a quick survey around the table. Here is a list from just the few of us that were there. Let's add your activities to this list.

BRING ON THE VITTLES / BRING ON THE BREAD

By Scott P Howat

Hey, bring on the vittles and bring on the bread.
For you at the table I bow me, me head
Service above self, there to assist.
Support is essential, a meeting not missed.

Unearth's the ball rolling, when no one's around.
Playing the first fiddle, one's duty, so crowned.
Much like the GREETER, who has a kind face.
Requiring more pizzazz, to keep up the pace.

I know they do more, than one might expect.
A critical service, that deserves great respect.
For you at the table, I bow me, me head.
You greet our fine Chef, who lays out our spread.

And you pick up the pieces when most, they move on.
Here before most, after most, they are gone.
Service above self, there to assist.
Not many like you, you're on a short list.

Like I said just before, I bow me head.
Bring on the vittles, hey, bring on the bread.
Bring on the vittles, hey, bring on the bread.
Like I said just before, I bow me head
