This Week's Rotary Speaker

February 22

Alison Gatz is a self-proclaimed ◆Jack-of-all-trades◆. She is a graduate of Ball State University, Criminal Justice and Political Science. She held positions in Adult Probation and Youth Detention before changing gears and heading into Corporate America to enjoy a successful career in sales. After her third daughter was born, her job became full-time Mom and the high heels were traded in for sneakers and messy buns. She continued to stay connected through volunteering, as well as working part-time at the Fishers Y, helping launch Livestrong at the YMCA, an exercise program for cancer survivors. Alison lives in Fishers with her three daughters, husband and crazy Great Dane Blu.

It is the mission of Youth Mentoring Initiative to partner with the Hamilton Southeastern School Corporation and provide specialized mentor programs for students that encourage the development of personal values. Each year 5% of students are identified as needing one-on-one support for various reasons ranging from failing multiple classes, delay in graduation, being disconnected, receiving multiple disciplinary referrals or going through a life crisis. YMI can serve those students by inviting caring adults from the community to connect with students and be a listening ear, someone who will not judge them, and help them see their full potential as they continue to receive their education.
