Upcoming Program

September 2: @Billericay Park (126th St. & Promise Rd)

Fishers Parks & Recreation
Jake Reardon McSoley

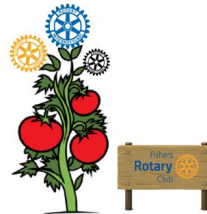

Please join us at Billericay Park (126th St. & Promise Rd.) for a special remote Club meeting!

Jake Reardon McSoley is the Director of Recreation & Wellness for the City of Fishers. In this role he lends leadership to both the City of Fishers Parks & Recreation Department as well as the Fishers Health Department. He is also engaged in a variety of culture of health and quality of life projects and initiatives. Prior to starting in this role in June of 2022, he served the community as Executive Director of the Fishers YMCA. He was with the YMCA of Greater Indianapolis for 17 years, helping to strengthen community by building a culture of servant leadership. He and his wife Jenn have been Fishers residents for 16 years. Their two sons Jackson and Jace both attend HSE Schools. He is also a proud past Fishers Rotarian, serving with the club from 2015- 2020.

Community Garden News

All Hands on Deck at the Garden!

We are in full harvest ... not to mention weed-prevention ... mode at the garden, and all help is needed whenever you are available. If you are not sure when you can make it or how you can best help, please reach out to Susan Leonard at susan.leonard1@icloud.com for any and all information!

Frank Bruggner: Proud father moment!

"Every page guides us through a visual journey of what it means to be a bee. Answer questions richer than honey along the way. An inspiring message for all ages and all becomings."
