Please Welcome Potential New Member Garrett Alcorn

by David I. Hollander

Garrett is the owner and general manager of LaserPrecision Marksmanship Club. He aspires to have his club be the premier destination for both novice shooters and seasoned veterans. He would like his club to foster an environment where individuals can hone the skills and principals essential for heightened preparedness, safety, and confidence while it enriches our community, city, state, and families. Garrett's journey in shooting sports and emergency preparedness was ignited during his time in the Boy Scouts of America(BSA), where he achieved the highest accolades in archery. He is a lifetime member of the BSA and he continues to mentor young men in the community. His career has included work as a trainer and nutritionist specializing in weight loss. He was a former 315-pound Division-1 lineman in college football. Garrett's personal transformation included shedding over 100 pounds after his athletic career. He was a top 5 official USA Olympic weightlifter. His hobbies included fitness, sports, and playing music. He also enjoys working with wood and other physical art mediums.
