On Old Age – Linda Perret

"I'm not sure why they call them the Golden Years, most of my parts rusted ages ago."

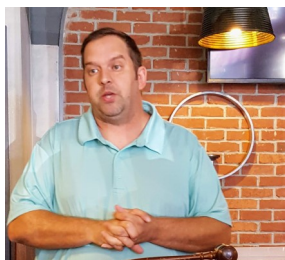

"You know you've reached old age when you can tell time by which pills you're taking."

"I seem to get grouchier as I get older. My family says I have a receding personality."

"When I was young I thought I could conquer the world. Nowadays putting my socks on by myself is enough..."

SPEAKERS—SEPTEMBER 4, 2019

Chase Cotten—Hendricks Cty Health Dept
Ryan Chapman—Active Grace

Chase Cotten (left) explains his agency's efforts to address issues of mental health, substance abuse, tobacco use, and sexual health, along with coordinating the collaborative organization the Hendricks County Health Partnership. Ryan Chapman (right) explains Active Grace's mission of providing emergency housing, transitional housing, and workforce development programs at its Camp Camby facility.

Thanks to all who volunteered at or participated in last Saturday's 14th Annual Plainfield Rotary Night Golf Outing! It was a beautiful evening for playing golf in the dark. Special thanks to John Baer for his continued commitment to organizing this very important event for our club. Under Joe Bennett's able guidance, some of our new Interact Club members assisted in placing our hole sponsor signs before the event. Diane Burks did a great job as "Rocky II" at the grill, and Jan Baer & Sandy Bennett (Joe's wife) made sure that no one left hungry. Selina Lewis and Cory Stewart ably manned the registration desk—we assume all funds received were in balance by the end of the evening... John Himmelheber, with assistance from President Brad, presided over the putting contest. We know their measurements were accurate. What's next? The Quaker Day Parade and club picnic on September 21st!

John Baer and Brad DuBois thank the golfers for supporting our event and provide instructions for night golf—don't drive your carts into any sandtraps!

This is what night golf looks like. It's not easy for the golfers, or the photographer, to see!
