4-Way Test

Of the Things We Think, Say and Do

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?
- (5. Is it FUN?)

Charlie's Corner

“Don't be distracted by criticism. Remember the only taste of success some people get is to take a bite out of you.”

- Zig Ziglar

“Never let success get to your head. Never let failure get to your heart.”

“Sometimes moving to a new level means being brave. Don't get stuck at things that you are good at.”

“When your past calls, don't answer. It has nothing new to say.”

SPEAKER—SEPTEMBER 18, 2019
Don Sanders—Plainfield United Methodist
Church Homeless Ministries

Our good friend and Plainfield Rotary Club Past President Don Sanders visited on September 18th. Don provided updates on PUMC's growing feeding the homeless ministries. In addition to their long standing weekly visits to downtown Indianapolis to feed homeless there, PUMC now provides meals to homeless here in Plainfield and to residents in some of Plainfield's trailer parks.

This past Saturday, our Rotary Club, with the very able and enthusiastic assistance of our PHS Interact Club, participated in Plainfield's Quaker Day Parade. (see pictures on page 3) Sadly, due to a number of reasons, our Rotarian turnout for the parade was meager. Diane Burks worked diligently, as usual, to make this annual event a success, but the only Rotarians participating in the parade were Diane, Rocky Turner (thanks to Rocky for stepping up again to provide his trailer and shiny black pickup truck!), John Himmelheber and his wife Darlene, and your editor and his wife Patricia. President Brad was "on duty" for the Chamber as the organizer of the entire parade. We'll assume that this year was simply an aberration caused by unavoidable travel conflicts and other family commitments... Our club owes Diane a huge thank you for organizing this event, and the picnic that same afternoon, which was somewhat better attended. Thanks to all who attended, and THANK YOU DIANE!!!

SERVICE ABOVE SELF

Plainfield's Quaker Day Parade — September 21, 2019

Along with their new advisors, Christina Wilburn & Emily Williams, Interact Club members provided invaluable assistance!

Rotarians and friends gather to have fun and fellowship

Rocky and his shiny black truck provided wheels for the event

Our Lego-themed float was designed and built by our PHS Interact Club.

Legos in hand, the march begins...

Oasis Diner, a popular place for viewing the parade, and for tenderloins...

We were almost out of candy by the time we got to the bridge—could've used more...

Having fun on the National Road

Officers say the party's over... Everyone had fun!
