Program Update - March 24th

Theresa Brandon

Board Chair, Central Indiana K9 Association

Theresa Brandon, co-founder and Board Chair of the Central Indiana K9 Association (CIK9), spoke to our club last week. She is a former Marine who has a passion for dogs, in particular dogs working for law enforcement and the military. Her charitable organization was founded in 2019 and is based here in Hendricks County. Its mission is to elevate public awareness of the unique service of working dogs, and to foster a stronger affinity for the handler and units with whom the K9 serves. CIK9 has already established a fund called the Shadow Fund, which is designed to supplement the high cost of medical care for these retired dogs, most of which have been adopted by their former handlers. In addition to the Shadow Fund, CIK9's two other primary goals are to establish a dedicated Canine Training Facility for our area, and to establish a Working Dog Monument with a Heroes Memorial.
