THOUGHTS FOR THE WEEK

Think about these definitions when considering Classifications for Rotary and Membership. We sometimes put different meanings to them.

VOCATION: a strong feeling of suitability for a particular career or occupation.

A person's employment or main occupation, especially regarding as particularly worthy and requiring great dedication.

A trade or vocation.

PROFESSION: a paid occupation, especially one that involves prolonged training and a formal qualification. (Thought you might get a kick out of this... The Oldest Profession: the practice of working as a prostitute.)

CAREER: an occupation undertakings for a significant period of a person's life and with opportunities to progress; working permanently or committed to a particular profession.

ALTRUISM

The unselfish concern for other people—doing things simply out of a desire to help, not because you feel obligated to out of duty, loyalty or religious reasons.

Selfless concern for the well-being of others?

In nature: the behavior of an animal that benefits another at its own expense.
