Heather Olinger

Board President - Level Two Co-working Space

On September 28th, Heather Olinger, Board President of Level Two Co-working space, visited our club to acquaint members with the program. Level Two is a nonprofit (501c3) here in Plainfield, Indiana. Although it has an amazing shared office space, Level Two works hard to be more than that. Its mission is to foster Entrepreneurship and cultivate growth in Small Business by providing space, networking and educational opportunities: whether it is a community of support, access to the right resources, or a great place to get work done, Level Two wants to help provide what fledgling businesses and organizations need to succeed.

The vision and support provided by the Town of Plainfield has provided the foundation necessary to launch a solid plan to serve our entrepreneurial community. From its beginning, Level Two has sought out experts in multiple business fields to ensure a diverse set of eyes on the project from concept to completion. Its team is made up of professionals in the economic development world, the world of finance, the education and training world, the legal world, and the world of public service. It is Level Two's job to ensure that all who participate are successful. Its location in the Shops at Perry Crossing, on the second floor above Stonecreek Dining Company provides the following to day pass, monthly, and annual members. Access to over 5,000 sq ft of amenities such as:

- Speedy and Secure WIFI
- A Community of Peers
- A kitchen stocked with delicious coffee and tea
- 3 bookable private meeting rooms
- Printing and Scanning
