CLUB NEWS

Monday's Program

Our own Jeff Emsweller, Executive Director of the Chamber of Commerce and his Administrative Assistant Dawn Lowe were our speakers Monday.

Jeff gave a history of the chamber which was established in 1906. He reviewed the benefits of being a member, the awards given annually and upcoming events. Dawn went over the chamber's numbers: 300 members and 3800 Facebook followers. In addition to its members, the chamber kept the entire community informed during last year's COVID shutdown. Two of its Facebook posts reached over 76,000 people. Jeff invited us to attend the chamber's next event, the virtual legislative update this Saturday, March 27. You can contact him for a link if you would like to attend: jemsweller@gmail.com.

2019-2020 Rotary Citation

2019-2020 DG Santhana Naidu presented the R.I. Platinum Rotary Citation to 2019-2020 Club President Lora Williams at Monday's meeting. This is the highest level given.

The club met its goals for the year in addition to the requirements set forth by District 6580 to achieve this award. Though Santhana could not be with us in person, we were pleased to have him attend our meeting virtually. Our club was also #1 in the district in per capita giving to the Rotary Foundation. Lora congratulated the club for working together to receive this prestigious award.

Fifth Monday Next Week

We will have no noon meeting on Monday, March 29. Instead we will gather at The tAap from 5-7PM. It is located at 116 E. Washington St. on the northside of the downtown square. We will have appetizers from Koch's and a musical duet from two of our members. Curious? Be sure to attend! Spouses, significant others and potential members are welcome.
