CLUB NEWS

Monday's Program

Membership Chair Kelby Owens and President Tami led the club in a discussion of a membership drive. Ideas were shared, including having a celebratory picnic for our 100th (now 101th!) anniversary and inviting potential members to it. We could also have an after hours gathering at The Tapp or Studebaker Studio. Several potential members and businesses were named. Kelby and Tami will put the information gathered at the meeting together and follow up with us.

District Conference

Ten of our club members took time last Saturday to attend all or part of the 2021 District Conference via Zoom. They all agreed it was a huge success! There were excellent speakers: Jenny Stotts had an uplifting talk about being “Rotary Happy”; Todd Jenkins, aka Dr. Bowtie Todd, spoke passionately about diversity and inclusion; and David George Brooke (That Gratitude Guy) inspired us to keep a daily gratitude journal. During the District 6580 business meeting DG Jessika Hane presented two Avenues of Service Awards: one to Mandy Lohrum and the other to all club presidents as they have persevered through leading their clubs during the pandemic. Congratulations to Mandy and Tami! A touching tribute to deceased members was presented and reports were given on polio progress and the R.I. Foundation.

Special Olympics Donation

Special Olympics Coordinator Jenny Maddux and Olympian Ann Smith joined us Monday to accept a donation of $1000 from President Tami. Jenny thanked the club for its continued support and stated the 2021 summer games are going to be held in a modified form. They were cancelled due to COVID in 2020 so the athletes are looking forward to participating this year.

Next Week's Meeting

John Lecher, Lake Santee Manager, will present the program about all the latest news and activities going on at the lake. We will also have the induction of our newest member, Mayor Joshua Marsh.
