Jamie Beckett, Director

Marion County Family and Children First

Marion County Family and Children First Council's purpose is to help meet the needs of children who have multiple needs which cannot be served by one agency. The Council is made up of several area child serving agencies and parent representatives which function to coordinate services for these families, identify and fill in service gaps, and use local resources as judiciously as possible.

Jamie Beckett has been with the Marion County Family and Children First Council as Director since December of 2021. Before taking the position with Marion FCFC, she spent seven years at a local domestic violence program. Through that experience, she learned the importance of agency collaboration to increase access and knowledge of community-based services. She has participated in several coalitions including the Wyandot Community Health Alliance, Union County Sexual Assault Response Team, Delaware County Against Human Trafficking Coalition, and Franklin County Victim Advocate Coalition. Her experience working with survivors of domestic violence have also given her knowledge of Trauma-Informed Care practices, as well as adapting programming to fit the needs for survivors of Intimate Partner Violence and individuals with Traumatic Brain Injury.
