Angie Yazel

Superintendent, Marion Cemetery Association

Topic: Update on the Marion Cemetery

Description: At present, the Marion Cemetery encompasses 150 acres with 18 acres available for additional development. There are 32,504 individuals interred at the Marion Cemetery. The not-for-profit organization is governed by a board of trustees, who are elected by the Marion Cemetery Association board members. The association board members represent those holding rights to burial lots, crypts and cremation niches.

Angie Yazel is the 14th superintendent of the Marion Cemetery Association, and the first female to lead the organization. She has been with the Marion Cemetery for the past 26 years. According to Angie, working at the cemetery isn't as depressing as it might seem. It's pleasantly quiet and she is able to connect with many people, including those visiting a loved one and the many genealogy enthusiasts. Being superintendent is one of the most unique and satisfying experiences of her career. Much of her knowledge and ability to do what she does now, comes from many years of on-the-job experience. Angie resides in Marion, sharing a home with Doug and their two dogs.
