LUKE HENRY, ALEX SHERIDAN
Main Street Reimagined

In 2018, the block of South Main Street between Center St and Church St was 70% vacant. Looking past the shuttered windows and crumbling facades, Luke Henry and Alex Sheridan believed that this block in the heart of Downtown Marion, had the potential to be reimagined into new dining, shopping, and entertainment destinations. They quietly bought 8 vacant and underutilized buildings on the block, then announced their plans for Main Street Reimagined in late 2018. Since then, despite two years of COVID setbacks, they have revitalized 3/4 of the original buildings, which now house The Brickyard on Main, The Union, Topped Ice Cream & Eatery, Style 124 Salon Suites, as well as other businesses and upscale loft apartments.

Today they will be sharing about The Lydia, a new project that will include new dining and living options across from Founders Park, as well as plans for Urban501, another wedding and event venue in the building that previously housed The Warehouse Italian Restaurant, as well as other projects happening around downtown!
