Rotary Learns more about DACdb.

By Robert Lee Martin

Past President Beth Schweitzer opened the August 27th meeting at the Chandelier Event Center. Bob Oleson offered an inspirational quote for our opening prayer.

Guests/Attendance:

Attendance today was 16. The Basket Fund raised $26. Anne Lange DeVine won the Weekly Drawing and Beth Schweitzer won the Free Lunch. Ty Cooper is celebrating a birthday this week.

Committees:

Social Chair Anne Lange DeVine has scheduled a committee meeting to discuss potential social events. If you have any ideas or would like to serve on the committee, let Anne know. Amber Stover reminded the club that we have a service opportunity on September 14 for the Sandusky River Clean-up. See Dave Weininger if interested. Membership Chair Beth Schweitzer reminded people to bring guests as potential members and she also reported that the club has received $9,450 in sponsorships for the October 19 Rotary, Rock Ribs and Rum event at Rotary Park.

Sarge's Report:

Sarge Tom had some Happy Dollars for college football starting up and one for his oldest daughter participating in a program at Cleveland State that will provide her a Masters Degree and three certifications. Gina had one for a good program at the Youth Center called Time to Invest run by Trinity Lescalet. Kelly had one for her daughter who is participating in a Masters program in Athletic Training at Heidelberg. Kelly had a second one for a funny comment that her daughter made: "Mom, she said, "football players really smell!" Beth had a "Hopeful Dollar for the Guardians and Bob O. had one for his 64th Anniversary! Congrats, Bob and Shirley!! Kaleb had one for his 13th Anniversary. Congrats to you and your wife, too, Kaleb!

Program:

Our speaker today was our Secretary, Lee Martin. His topic was DACdb. He walked us through the basics of DACdb starting with our personal profile. Lee noted how many videos are available through DACdb for almost anything you need to do. Just go to DACdb's homepage and click on "Admin/Support".
