Rotary Entertained by Mohawk Show Choir

By Robert Lee Martin

President Mimi Johnston opened the December 19th meeting at the Chandelier Event Center. Rev. Charlene Thomas offered an opening prayer.

Guests/Attendance:

Guests today included prospective member Ron Geisinger and Kyle Daugherty. Attendance today was 24. The Basket Fund raised $252 Our ar. Keith Hodgkinson won the Weekly Drawing and Sarah Betts won the Free Lunch.

Committees:

Dave Weininger reminded us that we are ringing the bell for the Salvation Army this Saturday. A sign-up sheet is online at Google Docs. He also reminded us that we will be making up bags for the Presbyterian Church's Non-food Pantry at our January 21st meeting. Amber Stover thanked everyone who volunteered at the Sutton Ice Rink.

Sarge's Report:

Our Sarge fined Marisa a buck for allowing a wedding to transpire on a Tuesday! He had a Happy Dollar for his home's foundation work being completed. Amber C. had one for her shower being fixed and Beth had one for her granddaughter, leaving her a note that said she was "the best grandma!" Anne had five HDs for our prospective members and all of us. Amber S. had one for the Eagles concert she and her husband attended in Las Vegas. Charlene had one for her co-pastor, who allegedly wore the most "heinous" outfit to their Ugly Christmas Sweater Party. Mimi had 20 HDs for half of her year being completed and for everyone being so welcoming. Clark had 20 HDs for this year's Christmas Parade, marking his 20th atop the firetruck. Phil had 3 HDs for his church, purchasing and remodeling the old C.S. Bell property as the new home for Family of Faith Methodist Church. In addition, Rotarian Michael Work is the architect and Rotarian Charlie Hayward is the contractor.

Program:

Our program today was the Mohawk High School Show Choir under the direction of Mr. Wyatt Price. They performed a number of Christmas favorites and even played kazoos. The choir had 11 girls and 5 boys, and they were delightful.
