Rotary Learns About Lake Erie

By Matthew Ross on Sunday, March 5, 2023

First Vice-

president Amber Stover called the meeting to order. Chris Lewis gave the invocation.

Guests/Attendance:

Guests today included Brian Ferguson, hosted by Dave Spridgeon, Mary Franks was hosted by Chris Lewis. Levi Morgan, of Sentinel, was our lone student guest. Nineteen Rotarians were in attendance. The Basket Fund raised $31. The 50/50 Drawing was won by Deker Sidor and the Free Lunch was won by Charlie Haywood.

Committee Reports:???????Membership - Rahat asked everyone to complete the membership Satisfaction Survey as well as the Rotarian of the Month questionnaire.

Fundraising - Tricia Reinhart reminded club members to get their Reverse Raffle tickets sold. She also reported that Lenny Clouse was able to purchase a grill for the April 1 event. Rotarians can still make prize solicitation calls to any businesses assigned to them. The club also needs baskets for the Auction and a Kalahari gift card.

District: Beth Schweitzer recommended DACdb as a great tool. Members should consider the District Assembly in Tiffin and then District Conference in Cleveland.

Birthdays: Janet Shutt reported that Gina Reuter celebrates her birthday this week.

Sarge's Report:

Happy Dollars came from: Tom Zirm for a successful move for his mother-in-law. Dave Spurdgeon for his new Deli opening Saturday, Adam Smith for Dueling Pianos coming up soon and his son won local and district free throw contests and is going on to State. Beth Schweitzer had one for her Grandson who was nominated for a youth leadership group in Toledo.

Program:

Len Partin presented on the Lake Erie Foundation's efforts to clean up the Lake. Currently, the Foundation is to reduce or eliminate toxic algae blooms, prevent construction of over 1000 wind turbines within the Lake's waters, and stem the tide of plastic and microplastic pollution.
