Rotary Celebrates "FriendsGiving"

By Robert Lee Martin

President Mimi Johnston opened the November 26th meeting at the Chandelier Event Center. Rev. Phil Moerdyk gave the opening prayer. Mimi announced that Charlene Thomas has agreed to serve as 1st Vice President and Marisa Huss has agreed to join the Club's Board of Directors.

Guests/Attendance:

Prospective member Amber Clason was our only guest. Attendance today was 20. The Basket Fund TCS's Heads to Toes clothing program. Celebrating birthdays this week were Nikki Distel and Kaleb Kuhlman. The Weekly Drawing was won by Dave Weinger and the Free Lunch by Char Pope.

Committee Reports:

Anne Lange DeVine reminded members of our annual Christmas Party at Bill Reineke's home on MONDAY, Dec. 9th from 6—8 pm. Please park at Mohawk Country Club. A shuttle will take you to and from Bill's home. Also, please consider an item for our auction that night. See the attached Christmas Party flyer. Anne said that many of our Rotarians will be participating =with Off Our Rockers at the Tree Lighting ceremony on December 6 and that we are invited to help hand out candy at the Christmas Parade on December 7. Marissa reminded us of our opportunity to volunteer for the Sutton Ice Rink on the weekend of December 13-15, 2024. A link to the Google sign-up sheet is here: Sutton Bank Rink at Oakley Park Rotary Volunteering - Google Sheets . Half of the proceeds from that event will go to our local Rotary Foundation. Dave Weinger reminded us that Rotary will be ringing the bell for the Salvation Army on Saturday, December 21. Sign-up here: Salvation Army Bell Ringing Rotary Club Volunteering - Google Sheets. He also reported that we will be preparing bags for the Presbyterian Church's Non-food Pantry on January 21 at our weekly meeting.

Program:

Today's program was FriendsGiving. We went around the room and everyone commented on what they were grateful and why. A few examples were: Dave Weinger was grateful for Bob Oleson who hired him at Heidelberg and changed Dave's life—all for the good. Dave's career allowed him to meet and work with some wonderful people and to travel around the world. Keith Hodkinson had one for Rotary which has changed his life in so many positive ways. Gina Reuter had one for Rotary helping her to develop so many close and positive relationships.
