Announcements

Farewell Dottie

Farewell to thee! but not farewell
To all my fondest thoughts of thee:
Within my heart they still shall dwell;
And they shall cheer and comfort me.

Anne Bronte

TR announced that our beloved Dottie Pultz had passed away the previous evening. Even with failing health, Dottie made an incredible effort to attend meetings regardless of "snow, rain, heat and gloom of night" (pre-dawn on Fridays).

Dottie graciously opened up her home to Oakwood Rotary on many occasions, including the most recent Fireside Chat in 2022. Dottie, we will remember you with the greatest love and affection - always inspired by your kindness and generosity.

Joe Scott extends a Board Meeting Invitation: The next board meeting will be Wednesday, July 12th at Wright Library at 5:45 PM. The meeting is open to all and new members in particular are encouraged to attend to benefit from a crash course in Rotarian life.

Dan Edwards announced that Flyboys Owner, Steve Crandall, has recently had a stroke. An Oakwood institution, Flyboys is the destination spot for an eclectic aviation-themed menu and local beers - and we all love the rooftop deck! Please keep Steve and his wife Eunice in your thoughts.

Dave Lendt announced that Hazmat Pickup will be Saturday, July 15th with volunteers gathering at 9:00am at Tastefully Roasted. Please bring your truck if you have one and sturdy work gloves will also come in handy!! Keep a bottle of ibuprofen at the ready as well.

SARGE TOM DALRYMPLE TAKES THE MIC AND OWNS THE ROOM

REMEMBER RANDOM FINES??

The
"Just When You Thought it was Safe to Wear Orange Again" Edition

No shorts, no shorts, no shorts; Tom doesn't care if it's 90 degrees out and you have the legs of a gazelle, he doesn't like shorts in the "august" surroundings of the Dayton Country Club. Fines were levied for showing a little (or a lot) of leg and it kind of sounds like Halloween will be the only permissible time for clothing in the Sarge's least favorite hue - any other time, you'd better bring a wallet full of ones. If daadb (Rotary website) says it's your birthday, then it is and you owe a dollar so sorry Bob, today it's a dollar for last week's birthday (fines for past transgressions are to be expected).

We learned a lot about truth and integrity but also found out that we can get very creative when it comes to "two truths and a lie." We read the Four-Way Test out loud (then it becomes an oath!) and Immediate Past President Chris Epley added an audible pause at the conjunction to turn it into the truth that it is really the Five-Way Test.

Turns out that even after numerous corrections, Tom still thinks that Victoria has a Grammy award (it's really an Emmy) and she can drive a stick shift but can't rewire an electrical outlet. Joe (thanks for the assist that cost the table a dollar, Chris) has NOT caught balls at two major league games but his children are third-generation Oakwood school attendees. Tom does not have a license to drive a truck but does have a pilot's license (don't go up with him, though, he's a little rusty and that's one thing you NEVER want to hear your pilot say before he taxis down the runway) and also had a Coast Guard captain's license. Kristi knows a guy who knows a guy; her grandfather was a safecracker for the Mafia and she actually spent her Peace Corps time in the Dominican Republic. Josh has married three times (allegedly to the same woman), is an accomplished Eagle Scout and is brilliant, but just not IQ of 150 brilliant (it's only 130). Rick hasn't had to land a plane twice with the nose gear up (it's only been once) and he does scuba. Peter only aspired to major in English Lit at Cambridge but did escort Dolly Parton to Glasgow where she performed for the Queen. JR turned down the CIA for his family, and has traveled to 22, not 23, countries. Mike once moved a house to Centerville (not just himself, THE HOUSE) but can't boil water much less whip up a German Chocolate Cake. This year's board may not be the best liars but they're definitely...how shall we put it? Interesting?

Buck Talks

HAPPY BUCKS

Jill put in three bucks to celebrate the lives of two grandmothers and a father, all who recently passed away. Jill herself has come through several recent surgeries successfully and is recovering well and moving forward. JR announced that he will be moving to Knoxville, Tennessee. He is most grateful for the many great times with fellow Oakwood Rotarians and will be taking many happy memories to his new home in the land of Dolly Parton, where he hopes to continue the Rotarian life. Polly put in a buck for a great Pickleball social. Peter put in bucks for Dan Turben's great leadership, particularly when spotting him on the Boulevard carefully tweaking the flag arrangements (10' between flags, 1' from the curb) on the Glorious Fourth itself! George put in a buck for being retired for one week and loving every minute of it.

PRESENTER

2323-2024 President's Remarks and Comments: Joe Scott

Joe brings 12 years as a Rotary member to his new position as President and thanked all the Rotarians who mentioned, poked, reminded, cajoled and finally convinced him to join the Club. He hopes to continue in the 44-year tradition of our past Club Presidents, to continue the growth of our notable contributions to the community and to always "Have Fun and Get Things Done!"

In preparation for his year, he visited six local Rotary Clubs and found Fairborn (a singing Club!!) to be the most welcoming and gracious - he recommends a visit to Fairborn's Club if you have time. Joe's emphasis will be on the development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service and hopes to leverage the interests of Club members, particularly new members, for service opportunities. He is also encouraging Rotarians to consider being a speaker at our Friday meetings - it's very enjoyable to hear from our accomplished group of friends.

The Mulch Sale, Blood Drive, Hazmat Pickup, St. Vincent de Paul Sandwich Making (characterized as "slapping cheese and meat,") Holiday Flag Set-Up, RYLA, our Scholarships and recognition of the Oakwood Junior High "Student of the Semester," the Safety Building Holiday Feed, our support of the OHS Band (Chris Epley's bathroom is ready!!), and the crown jewel, TDIM and the TDIM Golf Outing!! All told, it takes our Club of 100 over 1,000 person-hours to raise $35,000 dollars and continue that beloved community tradition each May. As soon as the score cards for the golf event are all turned in, we start planning for the next year! Finally, our service hours and fund-raising activities have generated over $750,000 for the Oakwood Rotary Foundation to distribute to the Oakwood and Greater Dayton communities. We are fulfilling the "Get Things Done!" part of our mission statement for positive community impact.

Joe's focus for his upcoming term continues our traditions:

ACQUAINTANCE AS OPPORTUNITIES FOR SERVICE

We have recently paired with Brigid's Path (Marty Fitz as leader) to provide infant heart monitors.

LEVERAGE NEW MEMBERS INTERESTS

Joe offered encouragement to members, new and old to create meaningful service projects. He also offered a special shout-out to Trevor Hoffman for his development and leadership for our upcoming Habitat for Humanity volunteer opportunity on July 29th. Trevor created, organized and got the word out about this opportunity and it all came out of his enthusiasm for Habitat and his wish to share that opportunity with others in the Club.

"SIX IN 60" NEW MEMBER ENGAGEMENT

New members will quickly engage with the Club by completing six opportunities for engagement in 60 days and once the six opportunities are met, they will graduate from a NEW MEMBER button to a MEMBER button. These will include Greater duty, a sit-down with Joe, a sit-down with Doug Hammer (Treasurer), a sit-down with Shawn Miller (TDIM Chair), a sit-down with Dan Turben (Community Service Chair), and a choice of attending a Board meeting, a social event, service project or another community activity.

CLUB MEMBERS AS PRESENTERS

The Oakwood Rotary Club provides a great opportunity to meet new people, but it also helps members find ways to serve their community through "Service Above Self." If you have an interest (not insurance but thanks, John and Rob) or expertise in an area that will educate or enthuse other members in personal growth or knowledge, see Walt Hartel and he can work you in as a Friday presenter.

HAVE FUN!!

Club meetings aren't all business, they're also about the camaraderie that builds from being together and having fun every Friday morning. We work hard, but we also have fun and that's all a part of why we do what we do.

Joe introduced the new and continuing in-service Board members and encouraged anyone to attend next week's Board meeting to meet the Board, other members, and listen to and participate in Board discussions. Meet at 5:45 PM at Wright Library, 1776 Far Hills Avenue, next Wednesday July 12.

Finally, all of our service and fund raisers allow the Foundation to donate over $750,000 to the community and that enables us to fulfill the "Get Things Done!" part of our mission statement for positive community impact.

Joe's focus for his upcoming term emphasizes the importance of continuing our time-honored traditions. We work hard, but we have fun, too and no one remembers the alarm going off at 5:30am on Fridays. But we do remember the great times together filled with laughter and sometimes with tears.....(Dottie :(..... and that's all a part of why we do what we do.
