Tony Coury praised the group for their donations to the Happy Bucket. He instructed everyone who forgot their pin or hasn't volunteered in the last couple of weeks to mail in $1.

PROGRAM

President Elect Dylan Parry announced the program which highlights ZSC/OUZ Rotaract projects.

1. Andy and Elmer Project:

Phil Wentworth from Zane State spoke about the Andy and Elmer project. Phil will be working with Rotaractors to create a digital presentation of the Andy and Elmer 4-Way Test book this month. The Interactors at Maysville will be doing a parallel project with Kurt Dreier, the digital media instructor at Maysville.

Phil's Bio: IT Faculty & Digital Media Program Director, Zane State College

In 2020 Phil began his current role to develop a new IT program focusing on Digital Content & Media Creation. The program is scheduled to launch in the Fall of 2021.

Outside of the college, Phil is involved with a number of organizations, providing IT leadership and support. He is the founder of the Nonprofit "Lot 25", which focuses on providing educational opportunities to students in the developing country of Belize. When not working, He is a licensed pilot operating his own aircraft out of Parr airport in Zanesville.

2. Avondale Project: Donna Hampp, Rotaract Secretary and a Nursing student at OUZ. Avondale is a youth center in Maysville that houses children between 10-18 years old, who cannot stay with their parents for one reason or another. There are currently 12-13 students there, but they can house up to 22. The Rotaract is collecting baskets and eggs. We will be buying items to fill the baskets and eggs to give to the students for Easter.

3. Together We Rise:

Charlize Hadix, a Pathways to Engineering student at ZSC. This effort aims to provide decorated and fully supplied duffle bags for foster children. Heather Shepherd noted that the Rotaract will create a means for Rotarians and others to donate to this project.

4. Rotaract President Samantha Mozena, Marketing/Communications major at OUZ.

a. Dr. Elizabeth Kline from Zane State attended the November meeting to discuss resume writing and interview tips.

b. Melissa Wood from Child Protective Services will attend February 14 meeting to explain the foster care system in Muskingum County. Rotarians are welcome to join the meeting at 6 pm 2/14/2021 at <https://zanestate.zoom.us/j/81085035132>

Jo Sexton gave a closing message related to the Season of Non-Violence. President Corey announced that the words to focus on last week were Courage, Smiling, Gratitude, Caring and Believing. This week they are Simplicity, Education, Healing, Faith and Discipline.

We closed the meeting with the 4-Way Test.
