ROTARY DAYBREAK - ZANESVILLE

Date: 2.9.2023

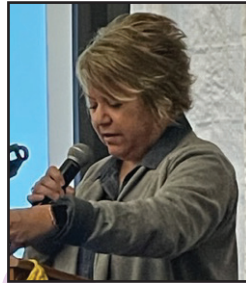

INVOCATION

Tony Coury

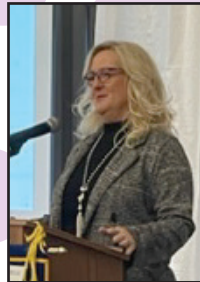

GUESTS(S):

Rand Guebert, visiting Rotarian from Delaware

PROGRAM:

Dana Matz introduced Kelly Ashby, who is Vice President of the Muskingum County/ Zanesville Chamber of Commerce. She is also known as the Queen of Tourism. Kelly shared a slide show which included that tourism contributes $223 million to the area's local economic impact. We have over 2000 employees working in the tourism industry. A commercial focused on all of Ohio but spotlighted various city areas including Tom's Ice Cream. The county's visitors' guide has been shared with various states and tradeshow. If anyone wants to receive a newsletter, you can email jchurch@visitzanesville.com to request the What's Happening newsletter. A new initiative on which she is working is the Muskingum County Arts Council. Check out the website at www.visitzanesville.com; use #visitzanesville or #captureamoment on social media with photos of the area.

ANNOUNCEMENTS / BUSINESS:

Ruthie shared that the 4 Way Test contest will occur on April 12 and they will present to the club on April 21.

Stephanie shared the Empowering Peace-builders Follow-up Information Meeting on February 12, 2023 from 12 – 1:15 pm. There is a Zoom link and participants need to register for the event.

Stephanie also talked about Nora Kline (Rotaract) who is participating in the exchange program. Guest Rand shared the process for the Youth Exchange program. She will find out soon where she is going. She'll need to learn the language. We are also a host club, so we'll get 1 of 6 students. Sheri Lewis will be serving as the host family.

Keely shared that the February 23 meeting will be that the Goodwill offices on Route 40 West.

SARGE:

Sarge Missy played the song, "It's 5 O'Clock Somewhere," by Alan Jackson. This is the favorite song of Nan Nolder. She enjoys it because it was first released when her family bought their first pontoon boat and they always enjoyed it as a family.

HAPPY BUCKET

HALF & HALF:

Martha won the half & half for $16. The grand pot prize stands at $465.
