recently started a job at Yes Club in Newark serving youth.

Kristen reminded us that the Holiday Art Fest is November 12 from 11 to 6 at the Zanesville Visitors Center.

Kristen's paintings are very personal, but she enjoys sharing her work with others. She enjoys and would like to do more with creating murals throughout the community.

She invited members to visit the First Friday Art Walk held every month from 5-8.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT:

Becky Clawson shared news about the Carr Center. She told the group that there is a large number of speech needs for children since COVID began. The numbers are up by 200%. She needs to hire a speech pathologist. The Center also has needed space, and recently the property across the street from the Center had been purchased.

SARGE:

Missy challenged the tables to guess whose favorite song is "That's What Friends Are For" by Dionne Warwick. No one guessed correctly that it is Julie MacLaine's song. The song has special meaning for her related to her friends, her husband, and her classmates at Zane State College when she attended.

HALF & HALF:

Val won the half & half while the grand prize pot continues to grow again.

Musician of the Month

Wes Devil

My journey into music started when my father first played me music from the band KISS. Growing up I always had the dream of being the next Paul Stanley Or Gene Simmons. I was always drawn to the shock factor certain bands and artists could achieve. Something about grabbing the attention of people by the way you look or perform has always been an inspiration. Icons like Ozzy Osbourne, King Diamond, Rob Zombie, etc, have always been my biggest inspirations alongside KISS.

I knew at my first concert that I went too that I was gonna give it all I got to be able to play on that same stage. You can say being able to play my music on the same stage where my idols played theirs is my goal.

I currently have 3 songs out. They are titled "Dying Breed", "Casualty Of Religion", and the third is a cover from the 80s horror movie Trick Or Treat, which is also the name of the cover.

What an honor it is to be named Musician of the month for October! Truly is an honor to be a part of ArtCoz.

Artist of the Month

Shilo Wilson - Gingersnap ArtWorks

Shilo Wilson (Gingersnap Artworks) is a seven-year-old new artist, she has been learning art and creativity from her mother, artist Diana Wilson with Rose Moon Artistry and Gingersnap photography. Shilo started painting and drawing at the age of two, alongside her mother. She enjoys learning and creating different artworks whether it be on paper, canvas or even digital which she is just now learning. Her first event was a first Friday at Kristen Brown's art studio where she not only sold her first piece of artwork, but also sold many more pieces after, at the age of 6. Since then, she has setup at a few other places including the welcome center and Zanesville Museum of Art. During the summer she enjoyed not only helping set up for Y bridge arts festival, but she was so excited to be an artist in the festival and really loved talking to customers and thanking them for buying her art. She and her mother were both interviewed at their tent for Whiz news, she did amazing. She branched out this summer and went to Zanesville Museum of Art for three weeks of Art camp, she enjoyed every moment of it, learned so much and made new friends. Once Art Camp was over, she was in their Art Camp Artworks show and had her artwork displayed at the museum. Shilo really loves colors and enjoys making artwork with them, she loves drawing cats, unicorns and her family. She will have her artwork setup for sale at Kristen Brown's studio for October's first Friday.

When the weather turns cold, it's tough to stay warm when your feet are cold. Socks are something that most of us never have to think twice about. When you go to get dressed, you open your drawer and pull out your most comfy, your warmest, or your favorite-colored socks. But for those who don't have a home, it often means walking on average up to 10 miles each and every day just to find basic necessities, and while wearing shoes that are not the correct size and with socks that are worn out, dirty, and stiff. There is nowhere to wash the socks, so after 2 to 3 days, the socks are worn through and must be thrown away.

It's not pretty, but it is reality.

One of the main reasons someone who is homeless goes to the emergency room is because of a foot ailment, and the best way to prevent that is be able to wear clean dry socks on a regular basis. So, if we can offer a simple piece of clothing such as new, fresh socks, feet can be protected from getting cold, getting wet, and getting blisters or worse. We know that socks are the #1 clothing need of those experiencing homelessness.

That's why we're asking you to get your club revved up and have each of your members donate new pairs of socks to help the homeless in your community.

Sock-tober is the name of our first district-wide service project this Rotary year. Our goal is simple. Together, we want to donate 3,200 pairs of socks – one pair for each Rotary club member in our district – to community homeless shelters throughout our district. It sounds like a lot of socks, but that's how big the need is.

Club service project leaders are encouraged to contact the homeless shelters in your community to develop plans for donating the socks to the organization of your choice. Additional organizations in the Columbus metropolitan area that may need sock donations include:

To highlight the Sock-tober service project, club volunteers are encouraged to upload photographs after entering the total pairs of socks collected to the link provided. These photos will be used to show how much fun Rotarians have helping others.

To participate in this district-wide service project, all you need to do is to collect new pairs of men's and women's socks during October and then record your final total by going to the link <https://forms.gle/VsmuD3PKEy4U57oz6>. Along with bragging rights, the top three clubs that collect the most pairs of new socks per member during October will be featured in the December District 6690 newsletter, and don't forget the likelihood of a "District Governor Pop-in" to celebrate the winning clubs! The deadline for recording your Sock-tober success is Nov. 11.

It's time to fire up your club members and start shopping for new warm socks. Don't forget to take lots of fun photos showing the mountain of socks collected and post on your social media as well as the link above.

Get creative! Have fun! Help your club to win the Sock-tober Challenge!

For more information about the Sock-tober service project, contact Wolf Lant at wolf@compucorp.net or call 614-579-2667. Members of the District 6690 Service Project Committee are Wolf Lant, Dublin AM; Amanda Bowen, Columbus; Bill Grindle, Worthington AM; and Sandy Knoesel, Columbus.
