PRESENTATION: PRESENTATION Nov 7, 2024: The club welcomed Washington County Veterans Service Commission Executive Director Darren Shearlock to speak about the importance of remembering our Veterans on Veterans Day and every day. He spoke of our basic freedoms and blessings we enjoy in our country due to the service of our veterans, and stated their office is strictly there to help servicemen and their families get the necessary basics that are needed to live the American Dream they fought to save. Stating they do it because: 1. It's the right thing to do. 2. If they don't help the veterans when their tour of duty is over there will soon be no young men and women who will be willing to join our armed services. Mr. Shearlock spoke of his tour of duty and gave an overview of some of the services the WCVSC provides.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- Socktober is Over. We donated 1,499 pair of socks!! They were delivered to various charitable organizations in our community, plus we're going to hold some back to put in our 'Little Free Pantry' over the winter.
- Thank you from the Humane Society. President McKenzie read a Thank you card for our club donation.

Split the Pot: Daily- $100 Jackpot- +$2000 Winner (daily only): Guest Speaker Darren Shearlock. Game goes on!
