Marietta Noon Rotary Members,

Speaker: Thursday, October 27, our club enjoyed a presentation by Sean Sward and Sabrina Leiter. I think I speak for everyone when I say we all enjoyed it very much. They win for "most laughs" generated by giving bios! Speaking this week: Neice to Pam Cannon, Amy Giannotti will present on the adventures of her great, great grandfather on the high sees!

Announcements:

You will be back in the comfortable and familiar lead of past-president Terry Rataiczak this week! I'll be out-of-town and president-elect Jarrett Stull is on vacation this week and also unable to be at the meeting.

Humane Society Service Project Update: The tank is in! See pictures below. If you look closely, you can see the two lines that OUPS did NOT identify and had to be repaired after the excavator hit them. Many thanks to Dave Archer for his continued efforts on this project. We'll be in touch soon about a need for volunteers out there.

Foster Family Service Project Update: I have four foster families wanting season tickets for MC basketball. I am working with Larry to make this happen.

Terry carries a card reader so you can use plastic if you don't have cash. Checks are also accepted. There is a committee meeting today at the Lafayette bar, 4:00 pm. REMEMBER- This and the Golf Outing are the only two fund raisers all year! CASUAL DRESS!

LIQUOR: Please bring an unopened bottle of liquor to Rotary in the next meeting or two as we put together a 'Beverage Basket' as a prize at the Rotary Rush.

Habitat For Humanity: Friday, January 6 house building service project. Sign ups coming out soon.

Squares board: Let's finish off the squares board! Bring $10 to the meeting this week so we can finish it!
