Last Week (November 2, 2023)

- Announcements:
 - Foundation Board: Colleen Cook made a presentation for the Foundation of the Rotary Club of Marietta. She gave a broad overview of the amounts in the Foundation accounts (Safety Town, Scholarships and Unrestricted Funds) and stated that the accounts are not endowment funds, so the board tries to operate Safety Town, present Scholarships and accomplish other service projects in the community by utilizing the interest (approximately 5.00%) off those accounts. The Rotary Board often asks the Foundation for extra funds so more can be accomplished; however, we are obligated to fund-raise if we want to keep operating with great generosity. Colleen stated, as you're giving to charitable organizations, don't forget to give to our own 501 3 (c), the Rotary Foundation. Either write a check to the Foundation or contact Eric Erb who manages the funds. Eric.erb@pebo.com
 - Colleen also brought the Board of Elections before the club. Robert Kirkbride is the Chair, Colleen is the Secretary/Treasurer, and the club also consists of Terry Rataiczak, Past President Tony Huffman, President Elect McKenzie Allen, Jacky Miner, who has agreed to serve another 3 years, Matthew Livingood.
 - Colleen stated she needed a motion to approve the appointment of both Jacky Miner and Matthew Livingood to the board. President Stull asked for a motion. Dave Baker made a motion to approve both Jacky Miner and McKenzie Allen joining the Foundation Board, seconded by Sabrina Leiter, and passed unanimously.
 - Special Presentation: Treasurer Terry Rataiczak presented Al Wanosky with his first Paul Harris Fellow. Congratulations Al.
 - Socktober: Sherry Wagner thanked the club for all of their donations and announced she will be delivering the socks to The Salvation Army, the Gospel Mission Food Pantry and the Community Resource Center
- Sgt. at Arms: Jesse Roush, dressed as one of the Allman Brothers (according to Dave Vandenberg), did a fabulous job of pegging numerous Rotarians for either who they should be for Halloween or for what character they would play in a Halloween horror movie. SOOOOO good!
- Split the Pot: Daily- $56, Jackpot- $891. Winner (daily only): Terry Rataiczak. Game Goes ON!
- Program: Janell Comstock and Kylie Postle with Ohio Valley Employment Resource visited our club and spoke about the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act. Kylie discussed numerous services that are available to all employers at absolutely no cost, such as employee recruitment, applicant screenings, training, hiring events and job fairs, as well as labor market statistics and so much more. Located on 1115 Gilman Ave, Kylie and Janell encouraged all employers in the room to take advantage of some of their specialized programs such as Incumbent Worker, Apprenticeships and On the Job Training.
