Good Morning, Marietta Noon Rotarians!

I had a call late yesterday afternoon from the Lafayette letting me know that they are experiencing air conditioning problems. I am supposed to get an update today but I wanted to put everyone on alert that it is possible we may need to meet at an alternate location. Thursday's forecast is sunny and warm. Although we all like each other, some may not find it very inviting to "sweat it out" next to each other over lunch and a boring program from their newest president ;)

Where could we find an alternate location in just three days' notice if necessary? That's a fair question, right? Well, I happen to work at a place that seats 300 in our cafeteria. I will send out another email as I get more information. However, please be aware that it may be necessary for us to meet here at Wash. Co. Career Center. The Lafayette would still be preparing our food.

Please check back between today and tomorrow for updates.

Have a great day!
