15 percent of job success comes from technical skills.
I help you master The Other 85.

THE OTHER 85

STEPHANIE R. HANNA, ESQ.

Stephanie has been coaching attorneys and other professionals for the past decade – helping them navigate the profession, build their reputation, and develop their careers.

Having been a prosecutor, judicial staff attorney, solo practitioner, magistrate, and law firm associate, Stephanie understands the dynamics at play in each environment. She has been successful in different settings and has been elected by her peers to serve at high levels. The secret? Mastering The Other 85. Stephanie knows what it takes to develop and maintain key relationships, how to value people skills, and how to fit it all into a busy life. She has condensed all she has learned into The Other 85 and is excited to share it with you.

Also this week, our Students of the Month!
