South Oldham Rotary Hosts CASA Fun/Run Walk

Tuesday, October 8, 2024

The South Oldham Rotary Club is hosting a Superhero 5K Run/Walk to benefit CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) of the River Region in Pewee Valley. The event will take place on November 9th at 10 am at the Pewee Valley City Hall located at 312 Mt Mercy Drive, Pewee Valley, 40056.

Participants are encouraged to dress as their favorite superhero and be a real hero by participating in this event, which will benefit CASA's efforts to provide advocacy and support for children who have experienced abuse and neglect.

The event is open to all ages. Get a team together—or better yet, get a few teams together for a competition! Prizes will be awarded for the largest team and the best costume.

Register online in advance at SouthOldhamRotaryEvents.org. The cost to participate is $25 for adults, $10 youths 12-17, younger than 12 are free. Registration will open on site at 9:30 am.

South Oldham Rotary Honors September & October Students of the Month

By Cindy Hack on Monday, October 21, 2024

The South Oldham Rotary Club recognized their John Longstreet Students of the Month for September and October at their October 18th meeting.

South Oldham High School Counselor Alex Engle introduced South Oldham High School Senior Noah Gay and described him as compassionate and analytical. At South Oldham High School Gay is in the Marching Band, Jazz Band, National Honor Society, Beta Club, Tri-M and the Tennis Team. He has received AP World History Outstanding Student Award, Spaulding University SOHS Band Award, University of Louisville Honor Band and All District Band. He shared during his talk that teacher, Mr. Fulks, ignited his passion for aerospace. Gay plans to attend Georgia Tech, Alabama Huntsville, University of Kentucky, Miami of Ohio or Dayton University with a career goal of being an aerospace engineer. In his free time, you'll find him playing music, enjoying the outdoors, participating in church activities or volunteering at rescue shelters. His parents are Greg and Amy Gay.

When introducing South Oldham High School Senior, Symone Claiborne, Engle described her as a driven young women and shared that Claiborne likes to help people create a better sense of themselves. Claiborne is in the University of Louisville Education Pathway, dual credit AP courses and Bible Study Clubs. She is now a student representative for the Advisory Committee at the Arvin Education Center. When she was attending Jefferson County Public Schools she was in cheerleading, gymnastics and participated in the Business Pathway-Banking Apprentice, and a Peer Tutor for Dual Credit Law classes. She is also a member of the National Honor Society and plans to attend the University of Louisville, Bluegrass Community & Technical College, Western Kentucky University or Eastern Kentucky University with a career goal of being in the health science field (nutrition and mental health). Claiborne's interests outside of school are nutrition, health, the Bible, FCCLA, advocacy and leadership, attending mental health conferences, National Alliance on Mental Illness advocate, Ohio Next Gen State Board (selected to speak on behalf of trauma survivors and how to support them). Her mother is Angela Claiborne Arvin Education Center Nursing Instructor, Rachael Moore, introduced South Oldham High School Senior Alexis Tyler and shared that Tyler has grit, drive and perseverance. At school, she is a member of the National Honor Society, a member of the South Oldham Color guard and she's the founder of the Fully Booked Book Club at South Oldham High School and a member of the National Society of High School Scholars. Tyler plans to attend the University of Louisville with a long-term goal of being a cardiac nurse. Outside of school she loves to read and spend time with family and friends. Her parents are Ted and Cynthia Sauer.

Scarlett Ritchie Laurena is a Senior at South Oldham High School. When Joel Dixon, South Oldham High School Counselor, introduced Laurena he noted her resilience as South Oldham High School is her third high school in four years, and she has lived in four states in the last five years. At South Oldham High School, she is in the Spanish Club, Interact Club, Junior MANRRS (MANRRS is the voice that promotes academic and professional advancement for minorities in agriculture, natural resources and related science), Bullet Journaling, Codegirls, Girl Scouts of America, Art Club, National Honor Society, and National Art Society Treasurer. She received the Freshman Top Ten GPA and High Honor Roll. Her career goal is to make the world a better place through environmental science and sustainability initiatives through the field of Environmental Studies. She plans to attend Yale, University of Michigan, University of Illinois or the University of California at San Diego. Her interests outside of school are volunteering, reading, journaling and Lego building (her father influenced this interest). Her parents are John Larena and Lorelei Ritchie.

When Dixon introduced Caleb Hanson, he shared that he is friendly and welcoming, a leader among peers, kind, respectful and hardworking. At South Oldham High School he is in the band, choir, football, wrestling and the welding program. He plans to attend Jefferson Community and Technical College for a career in the trade industry, most likely in the welding industry. He currently works at Hometown Pizza in Crestwood and enjoys weightlifting. His parents are Jack White and Auburn Lucas.

South Oldham High School Principal, Melissa Woosley introduced Grayson Reed and shared Arvin Education Center principal, Matt Watkins', thoughts on Reed. She shared he was a remarkable catalyst for team building. He is on the SOHS baseball team and in the Business Program at the Arvin Education Center. Reed plans to go into accounting with a double finance major after attending the University of Cincinnati, University of Cumberland or Western Kentucky University. His interests outside of school are working, video games and baseball. His parents are Jamie and Emily Reed.

The South Oldham Rotary Club congratulates these fine students on their accomplishments. The South Oldham Rotary Club meets every Friday at 7:30-8:30 am at the Oldham County Schools Arts Center, in Crestwood. Additional information can be obtained at southoldhamrotary.org or on facebook Visitors are welcome.
