boxes into cars and delivered boxes to families. Rotary family members also helped! It takes a village. You know the job is complete and successful when Rotarian Bill Potts breaks out the mop and starts mopping the floor!

South Oldham Rotary Volunteers at Highpointe Charitable Services

Saturday, December 28, 2024

South Oldham Rotarians put together 143 gift bags during our annual Christmas Party and delivered them December 17th to Highpointe Charitable Services where Rotarians helped decorate the Worship Center where they served meals to their clients that week. 'Tis the season and it sure looked festive when we finished!

John Longstreet December Students of the Month Honored

The South Oldham Rotary Club recognized their John Longstreet Students of the Month for December at their December 13th meeting.

South Oldham High School Guidance Counselor, Alexandria Engle introduced Larissa Evans and shared that she is innovative and exudes the spirit that is community service. Evans is a Senior at South Oldham High School where she is on the Swim Team, Speech & Debate Team, and a member of the National Honor Society, Beta Club and Mu Alpha Theta. She is an AP Scholar and has received a Girl Scout Gold Award, YMCA Volunteer of the Year, YMCA Youth Character Award and is a Governor's Scholar. She plans to attend the University of Kentucky, Miami of Ohio, University of South Carolina or North Carolina State University. Her career goal is to go into management, perhaps with a bio-technology firm. In her free time she is on the YMCA Swim Team, a Girl Scout, YMCA Life Guard, is an avid reader and enjoys spending time doing fitness and being with friends. Her parents are Matthew and Rebecca Evans.

South Oldham High School Senior, Parker Ellis, was described by Engle as being a thoughtful, compassionate leader and he makes others feel welcome. At school he is a member of the Ski Club, does Peer Tutoring, in the welding program and was on the football team for four years. Ellis made the All District Team in football last season and honorable mention this year, he was on the GLICOD Team (high school sports broadcasting) last year and on the Leadership Council in Football. He plans to attend the University of the Cumberlands and join the Air National Guard to become a loadmaster. Outside of school his interests are crossfit/gym, hanging out with friends and family and riding motorcycles as well as dirt bikes. His parents are Penn and Amy Brown.

Arvin Education Business Academy teacher Emily Spendlove introduced Christopher Jordan, Jr, a business academy student and shared that she is proud of who he is and he is very supportive of other students. At South Oldham High School Jordan is a National Honor Society officer, on the Student Council, a member of the Link Crew, Yearbook Staff, Beta Club and Y-Club. He was recognized as the Colonel Bates 2023 RYLA Leadership Award and received an Outstanding Photographer Award at Kentucky United Nations Assembly in 2023. Jordan's current college considerations are University of Kentucky, University of Cincinnati, Otterbein University and Northern Kentucky University. He will be traveling abroad in the near future as a participant in the Rotary Youth Exchange Program. His long range plan is to go into International Business or Diplomacy to help unite common parties around the world. He is in the Boy Scouts and enjoys piano, traveling, nature, cooking, leadership, learning and reading. His parents are Michael and Ana Jordan.

The South Oldham Rotary Club congratulates these fine students on their accomplishments. The South Oldham Rotary Club meets every Friday at 7:30-8:30 am at the Oldham County Schools Arts Center, in Crestwood. Additional information can be obtained at southoldhamrotary.org or on facebook Visitors are welcome.

Business Leader Recognized

Saturday, December 28, 2024

Pete Palazzolo with Dr. P's HVAC Heating & Air Conditioning was recognized as our Business Leader at our November 8th meeting. He exemplifies the fact that hard work and dedication pay off. Pete attended the Arvin Education Center HVAC program when in high school, worked at Jarboes after graduation and now owns his own business with several employees. Congratulations, Pete for your success! Pictured are South Oldham Rotary President, Rachel Thompson and Palazzo.

South Oldham Rotary Donates to CASA

Saturday, December 28, 2024

Thank you to those that participated in our annual CASA Super Hero Run/Walk in Pewee Valley on November 9th. We were able to donate $530 to CASA of the River Region from the proceeds of the event. Nichole Cardwell, Director of Development for CASA was presented the check from South Oldham Rotary Vice President, Terry Dill and South Oldham Rotary President Rachel Thompson.

South Oldham Rotary Donates to Food Baskets

Saturday, December 28, 2024

South Oldham Rotary President Rachel Thompson presented a $2000 check to South Oldham Rotarian Bobbie Stoess & Bill Potts on behalf of the South Oldham Inter Church Council. The funds will be used to purchase hams and other items to be put in the Food Baskets the Council does every year. The Club has a longstanding tradition of helping with this project. The Club is still collecting donations of food, toiletries and monetary donations for this year.

South Oldham Rotary Donates to Be Like Griff

Saturday, December 28, 2024

To those that attended our Bourbon & Wine Experience on October 4th and purchased the "Be Like Griff" specialty cocktail sponsored by Ernst Concrete, know that you did make a difference. At our November 22nd meeting we presented a check for $1400 to the "Be Like Griff Foundation". Board Member Joe Wells and Vice President Jeff Adamson were present to receive the check.
