South Oldham Rotary December Students of the Month

By Cindy Hack on Monday, December 12, 2022

The South Oldham Rotary Club recognized their John Longstreet Students of the Month for December at their December 9th meeting.

Ethan Klein is a Senior at South Oldham High School and is in the Business Program at the Arvin Education Center. At school, Klein is involved in Future Business Leaders of America, Chess Club and football. He plans to attend Western Kentucky University, Eastern Kentucky University or the University of Cincinnati. His career goals are to get rich, drive fast cars, own his own business, better the place around him and have a street in New York City named after him. In his free time, he enjoys playing guitar, lifting weights, working on cars, hunting, fishing, piano and studying French. His parents are Tim & Dana Klein.

South Oldham High School Senior Madison "Maddie" Brown is involved in theater/drama and the Academic Team at school. She has been involved in drama since middle school. She plans to attend the University of Cincinnati, Southern Virginia University, Western Kentucky University or Ohio University. She plans to have a career in teaching, directing, administrative

South Oldham Rotary Donates to Area Schools

By Cindy Hack on Monday, December 12, 2022

The South Oldham Rotary Club is proud to be a long time supporter of our area schools. Each December we make a $500 donation to Camden Station Elementary, Crestwood Elementary, Kenwood Station Elementary, South Oldham Middle School and South Oldham High School. The school staff has the discretion to use the funds for students as necessary--coats, shoes, food, field trips and other needs.

South Oldham Rotary Leaders Don't Litter

By Cindy Hack on Monday, December 12, 2022

South Oldham Rotarians completed their last litter abatement for the year December 1st. They collected 32 bags of litter/car parts/coolers/furniture pieces etc on Veteran's Memorial Parkway from Hwy 22 to I71 south. Thank you to Rotarians Nickolus Stephens and son, Colson, Jim Hughey, Steve Roling, Roger Hack and Cindy Hack for improving our community! #leadersdontlitter

CASA Superhero 5K Run/Walk

By Cindy Hack on Monday, December 12, 2022

Mother Nature threw us a curveball! The South Oldham Rotary Club sponsored the CASA of the River Region Superhero Fun Run 5k on Saturday, November 12th. It was beautiful, but not what we had hoped for when planning the event. Thank you to the City of Pewee Valley and mayor Bob Rogers for allowing us to hold the event in Pewee Valley. Thank you for the CASA volunteers, participants and South Oldham Rotarians. We're giving back to support the abused, neglected and dependent children that CASA supports & promote court-appointed volunteer advocacy so that they can thrive in safe, permanent homes.

South Oldham Rotary Honors November Students of the Month

By Cindy Hack on Monday, December 12, 2022

At our November 11th meeting, had our favorite meeting of the month when we honor our John Longstreet Students of the Month. Here are some of tomorrow's leaders!

Emily Richardson is a Senior at South Oldham High School where she is involved in cheerleading, Y-Club which includes Kentucky United Nations Assembly (KUNA) and Kentucky Youth Assembly (KYA) where she is an officer, Mu Alpha Theta, Beta Club, National Honor Society, Interact Club, and the Speech & Debate Club. She has been recognized in the Governors Scholar Program and has perfect attendance at school for the past ten years. Richardson is involved in the co-op program at the Arvin Education Center Biomedical Program and she goes to the University of Louisville Hospital/UofL Health two mornings a week before school and shadows physicians from different specialties as well as being in the operating room for surgeries. She hopes to attend Georgia Tech to pursue a career in orthopedic surgery. Outside of school she enjoys bluegrass music and true crime. Her parents are Jim & Tracy Richardson.

At South Oldham High School, Senior, Nathan Touro is involved in basketball and is on the staff for the Draconium, the South Oldham High School yearbook. He is undecided on his college choice but is considering Kentucky, Ohio State, Tennessee and Indiana University. His career goal is to go to medical school and become a doctor or get a business degree. In his free time Touro enjoys golfing, church, youth group and NFL. He recently went to Costa Rica on a Mission Trip. Scott & Kara Touro are his parents.

Elizabeth Grady is a Senior at South Oldham High School and attends the Arvin Center in the Culinary Arts Program. At South Oldham High School she is involved in the Ski Club, Beta Club, National Honor Society and the Softball Team. After graduating, she plans to attend Adrian College, Centre College or Thomas More University with plans to be a graphic design editor or pursue concert management. Outside of school she enjoys video editing, bowling, snow boarding and reading. Her parents are Adam & Kris Grady.

The South Oldham Rotary Club congratulates these fine students on their accomplishments. The South Oldham Rotary Club meets every Friday at 7:30-8:30 a.m, at the Oldham County Arts Center, in Crestwood. Additional information can be obtained at southoldhamrotary.org or on facebook Visitors are welcome.

South Oldham Rotary Donates to CASA

By Cindy Hack on Monday, December 12, 2022

At our November 18th meeting we presented a $5500 check to CASA of the River Region. Their Development Coordinator, Maggie Bade, was present to accept the donation. $3000 of the funds came from the Rotary Foundation of South Oldham, $2500 came from a personal donation by a South Oldham Rotarian. Additionally, we gave them a donation from Joni Buttorff with Your Land & Title, LLC from our CASA of the River Region Super Hero Walk held on November 12th.

South Oldham Rotary Donates to Highpoint Charitable Services

By Cindy Hack on Monday, December 12, 2022

Highpoint Charitable Services is an Oldham County non-profit that helps with resources to reduce the suffering of families caught in the cycle of hunger, poverty, and homelessness. They provided Thanksgiving boxes to over 500 families. In order to help this worthwhile cause, the South Oldham Rotary Club donated $1500 to Highpoint to go toward food. South Oldham Rotary President, Nick Stephens presented a check to Ameer D'Amico, Executive Director of Highpoint Charitable Services at their November 11th meeting.
