South Oldham Rotary Recognizes John Longstreet October Students of the Month

By Cindy Hack on Thursday, October 26, 2023

The South Oldham Rotary Club recognized their John Longstreet Students of the Month for October at their October 13th meeting.

Reese Hall is a Senior at South Oldham High School where she is on the Lacrosse, Golf and Academic teams, class Vice President, a member of Fellowship of Christian Athletes, in the Spanish Club and founding President of HOSA (Health Occupations Students of America). Hall plans to attend the University of Kentucky with a long-term goal of working in women's health as a nurse. She has been honored by WLKY as their student athlete of the week, is a Harvard Alumni Association Prize Book recipient and received the Team Banshee Award for outstanding player on and off the field. In her free time, Hall has her own crocheting business (Hi Beautiful Crochet) and she enjoys spending time with her family and playing all kinds of sports. Her parents are BJ and Angie Hall.

South Oldham High School Senior Nick Hamilton is the quarterback for the South Oldham High School football team, a member of Fellowship for Christian Athletes, Kentucky Youth Assembly, Kentucky United Nations Assembly and Young Life as well as a having received a 3 year varsity letter. He is keeping his options open for his further education as he would like to continue to play football in college. His career goal is to serve the country in the FBI or another similar organization. Fishing, golfing, shooting or being a car enthusiast are how he spends his time outside of school and football. Shawn and Meridith Hamilton are his parents.

High School Senior Sydney Hall attends South Oldham High School where she has participated in varsity basketball, soccer, is a member of the National Honor Society, Beta Club, Spanish Club, and Fellowship of Christian Athlete leader. She has been recognized as a state champion (soccer), regional champ (soccer), 4 time district champ (soccer & basketball) and has received her patient care technology license and is working on getting her medical assistant license. She also attends the Arvin Education Center. She would like to continue to play soccer at the next level when entering college, so she is still considering her options. Hall plans to get her nursing degree and work either in the pediatric field or mother and baby. Her interest outside of school are soccer, basketball, tennis, reading and being with friends and family. Her parents are BJ & Angie Hall.

The South Oldham Rotary Club congratulates these fine students on their accomplishments. The South Oldham Rotary Club meets every Friday at 7:30-8:30 am at the Oldham County Schools Arts Center, in Crestwood. Additional information can be obtained at southoldhamrotary.org or on facebook Visitors are welcome.

South Oldham Rotary Honors September Students of the Month

Sunday, September 24, 2023

The South Oldham Rotary Club recognized their John Longstreet Students of the Month for September at their September 8th meeting.

Avery Carter is a Senior at South Oldham High School and is enrolled in the University of Louisville High School of Business Accounting program at the Arvin Education Center. At South Oldham High School Carter is a member of the Drama Club, Beta Club and National Honor Society. She plans to attend Purdue University, Auburn University or Colorado State University with the plan to attend veterinary school and earn her DVM. She has received a job offer at a veterinary clinic after shadowing and received first place at Purdue Women in Business Competition. Outside of school she works at an exotic veterinary clinic and in her free time she enjoys rock climbing and volunteering. Her parents are Chad and Elizabeth Carter.

South Oldham High School Senior Katherine Bednar is enrolled in the University of Louisville High School Business

Program at the Arvin Education Center. At school she is on the Dragon Beat team, Dragon News staff, a Boomwhacker Club Member, in the Choir, and participates in musicals and Creative and Performing Arts Academy. She has been honored by being a part of the KMEA All State Choir, All County Choir Soloist, a National Honor Society Member and received a distinguished rating for vocal solo at Solo & Ensemble Festival. Bednar plans to do something with either film or music, most likely film production, after attending Brigham Young University-Idaho. In her free time, you'll find her songwriting, doing piano or voice lessons, participating in theatre, interning with the Oldham County Children's Choir, being a Church Chorister or volunteering for her church youth group. Her parents are Eric & Francine Bednar.

High School Senior Isaac Calvert attends South Oldham High School where he has participated in Lacrosse, Kentucky Youth Assembly, Link Crew, Beta Club, National Honor Society and the school newspaper, The Dragon's Tale. Calvert has received a Governor Scholar award, was a lacrosse State Runner-up, a Youth Representative of the Heartland District of United Methodist Church, and a Senior Representative for National Honor Society. He plans to attend the University of Louisville, University of Cincinnati, University of Kentucky or Vanderbilt to either earn a Master's in Engineering or pursue a law degree. His interests outside of school are chess, vinyl, babysitting and being a camp counselor at the YMCA. Nathan and Emily Calvert are his parents.

The South Oldham Rotary Club congratulates these fine students on their accomplishments.
