LAST PROGRAM

Rotary President John Johnstone, speaker Todd Cruse, and Rotarian Rhee Perry

On May 16, 2025, the Lawrenceburg Rotary Club welcomed Todd Cruse, Board Chairman of Voices for a Safer Tennessee, as the guest speaker for its regular meeting. Cruse shared powerful insights on the critical issue of gun safety and the organization's mission to reduce gun violence and promote responsible firearm ownership.

Cruse emphasized that Voices for a Safer Tennessee is not a "gun-grabbing" organization but one that actively supports the Second Amendment while advocating for common-sense policies to promote safety. The coalition, which includes thousands of responsible gun owners—including hunters, veterans, first responders, and active military personnel—seeks to foster a collaborative and purpose-driven approach to solving the gun violence crisis. Key policy recommendations include:

Expanded Background Checks: Closing loopholes on private sales to ensure that firearms don't end up in the wrong hands.

Secure Storage of Firearms: Advocating for stronger laws to encourage safe storage, especially since many school shootings involve guns taken from relatives' or friends' homes, or unsecured firearms stolen from vehicles.

Establishing a Temporary Transfer Process: A law already enacted in 21 states that has shown to reduce firearm suicides by up to 14% in states with the longest imple-

Early Saturday morning, May 17, 2025, members of the Lawrenceburg Rotary Club took to the streets with a mission to give, not take, during a "Reverse Roadblock" held at the intersection of Springer and Weakley Creek Roads. In a show of community kindness and outreach, Rotarians handed out 400 fast food gift cards to surprised and grateful motorists.

This reverse roadblock reflects the Rotary Club's continuing commitment to service above self and its ongoing efforts to engage with the Lawrenceburg community in positive and creative ways. The Lawrenceburg Rotary Club is part of Rotary International, a global organization of more than 1.4 million members dedicated to humanitarian service, promoting peace, and improving communities locally and worldwide.
