Pictured above: President Phillip Hood and Brandi Burdette from A Kids Place child advocacy center. The center provides a safe place and various services for abused children from Lawrence and surrounding Tennessee counties. Burdette related how one in ten children in our community will have been victims of some form of child abuse by the time they are eighteen, most frequently from people they know and trust. The center provides a safe, nurturing environment where kids can be kids and eventually speak about the unspeakable in order to begin the process of emotional healing. Children are referred to the center by law enforcement and other agencies when child abuse is suspected. Funding for its $500K budget is provided mostly by grants, however a local fund raising effort is required to maintain existing grants and cover any shortfall. One such fund raiser is a Demolition Derby to be held at Lawrenceburg Rotary Park on Saturday, October 26. The center is located on West Point Road at the old Christian Children's Home.
