Program— Friends of Lawrence Co Animals

with Leigh Ann Pettus

Picture above President Greg Kelso, FOLCA Treasurer Beth Keaton, FOLCA President Leigh Ann Pettus, and Rotarian Teresa Frazier. Pettus is the President of Friends of Lawrence County Animals (FOLCA) a 501c3 nonprofit focused on activities that promote animal welfare and responsible pet ownership. FOLCA is looking to provide a resource for aggressive or sick animals, reduce the threat of traffic accidents and provide a workable solution to humane issues outside the city limits of Lawrenceburg. Phase 1 of the 5,000 sq/ft building exterior is complete and they are now working on phase 2 for the Interior. This will have a 75 kennel capacity, to shelter, bath, care and a place to show new pet owners their adoptions. They are looking to raise $100K for this phase and they have a fund raiser on August 27th “Spy-ghetti” event planned and wish the public to come and join them. The facility is only supporting Dogs on this initial development but is looking to the future to add Cats into their care. You can find them at <https://friendsoflawrenceburganimals.org> or on Face Book at “Friends of Lawrence County Animals”
