Program—State Senator Page Walley

Picture above Rotary President Greg Kelso, TN State Senator Page Walley and Presenter Rotarian Sissy Garner. State Senator Page Walley was the guest speaker at the Lawrenceburg Rotary Club on Friday, May 20, 2022. Mr. Walley became our State Senator this year as a result of statewide redistricting. He grew up in LaGrange, TN, currently resides in Bolivar, and represents constituents in southern Tennessee counties along US-64 from Fayette thru Lawrence plus Chester and Haywood Counties. His district includes the multi-billion dollar electric vehicle plant that is being constructed near Brownsville. Like other senators and representatives in Tennessee, Mr. Walley is a citizen legislator. His background is in community mental health, and he currently works with a non-profit that assists kids who are becoming too old for foster care. Senator Walley touched on a range of subjects including state aid to education, community development, expansion of broadband into rural areas, road maintenance, and the state's Rainy Day Fund.
