Program—Columbia Mayor Chaz Molder

Picture above Rotary President Greg Kelso, Columbia Mayor Chaz Molder, and Presenter Rotarian Olivia White. Mr. Molder was born and raised in Columbia, is a practicing attorney, and has served as the city's mayor since January, 2019. His city is currently experiencing a growth spurt in both commercial and residential areas with Maury County's population now exceeding 100,000 and the City of Columbia at 41,000. Columbia has recently landed a Fortune 500 industry that will generate $300 Million in capital investment and provide 300 high paying jobs. Molder also described the recent renovation of Seventh Street in Columbia and how it has revitalized the downtown area. Promoting education has been his biggest challenge as mayor and he feels that getting good people, regardless of political persuasion, to run for public office is a challenge faced by communities across the nation.
