LAST MEETING (December 16, 2022)
UT Southern Chancellor
Dr. Linda Martin

Pictured left President Elect Tiffany Cope, Chancellor Dr. Linda Martin, Rotarian Bill Phillips. Dr. Martin has been with the UT system for a number of years and became Interim Chancellor of UT Southern on July 1, 2022. She has been Teaching or in Administration at the collegiate level for approximately 35 years. Dr. Martin graduated from Ohio State University with graduate degrees from other universities. She spent a number of years as an Agricultural Geneticist at Kansas State University before becoming an administrator at Ohio State. In addition to her duties as UT Southern Chancellor, she serves a Vice President of Academic Affairs for the entire UT system. Current enrollment is 934 students in Pulaski and she believes that number will top 1000 for next year's fall term. Campus facilities are currently being upgraded with building renovations. Development of a pre-engineering program is planned for the future.
