LCHS Head Football Coach David Marston shared several humorous stories about some of the coaches he played for and worked under, then discussed the current status of LCHS Football. The 2022 roster had only four seniors and finished with a six win season including victories over in-county rivals Loretto and Summertown. In 2023, LCHS will be moving up to a new 5A region which will include Lincoln County, Franklin County and other large schools in southern middle Tennessee. Coach Marston introduced several of his players including three of the four seniors who will graduate this year. He praised the 2022 squad for their hard work on the field and good behavior when together off of the field.

Rotarian Bill Phillips Honored with Press Box

The Lawrenceburg Rotary Club has honored longtime member Bill Phillips with the dedication of the Phillips Press Box. Phillips has served for many years as event announcer at the annual Middle Tennessee District Fair. The first event held at the club's newly constructed grandstand was in 2014, with Phillips moving to the grandstand press box that will now bear his name.

Rotary Club Fair Manager Tad Keaton presented Phillips with the honor during the Rotary Club's attendance at the Tennessee Association of Fairs annual convention held recently in Murfreesboro. He praised Phillips' longtime service to the club and community.

Phillips joined the Lawrenceburg Rotary Club in 1986. He served with the Tennessee Association of Fairs from 2003 to 2010 and as association president in 2009. The association presented Phillips with its Thornton Taylor Award in 2019 that recognizes those who have supported their local fair as well as the association.

Phillips has served in many capacities with the local club, including stints as president, during the 1999-2000 and 2007-2008 Rotary Years. In addition to his Rotary volunteer duties, Phillips works with Lawrence County Skywarn and has served as the Lawrenceburg/Lawrence County's Emergency Management Agency's Public Information Officer since 1994.
