LAST MEETING (October 27, 2023)
Lawrence County Public Library
with Teresa Newton & Marie Brennan

Pictured above, President Tiffany Cope, Librarian Teresa Newton, Asst. Librarian Marie Brennan and Rotarian Jane Jennings. MS Brennan gave an interesting presentation on the library and its programs. The library is a taxpayer funded service that operates out of its main branch in Lawrenceburg and a satellite branch in Loretto. In addition to providing access to books, magazines, and newspapers, the library provides free WiFi access, use of computers, photo copying, and an assortment of additional services. Programs include Toddler Time, Book Clubs, Summer Reading Programs, and Genealogy Services. Over 125,000 items were checked out in 2022 with over 10,000 patrons assisted and questions answered. In addition to taxpayer funding, the library receives financial assistance from Friends of the Library, memorial gifts, and proceeds from the from the W. L. Gladish Charitable Trust.

If bringing guest(s) to a Friday Rotary Meeting, please notify Donna Pack at (931) 201-1531 by Wednesday so that the appropriate number of lunches can be ordered.

If you find an error in attendance – Absent list, Make-Ups, or would like to know how you stand on attendance. – Please email rcburgsec@charter.net and I'll make the correction promptly.

Thanks, Maria
