PAST MEETING (April 26, 2024)

Rotary Foundation with Past District Governor
& Incoming Foundation Chair Eddie Allred

Picture above: Rotary President Elect John Johnstone, District Governor Elect Darrell Ailshie, Past District Governor Eddie Allred, Rotary President Tiffany Cope, and District Governor Nominee Chris Williams. Past District Governor and incoming Rotary Foundation District Chair Eddie Allred spoke on The Rotary Foundation at the Lawrenceburg Rotary Club. The Rotary Foundation is the charitable arm of Rotary International and is funded entirely by contributions from Rotarians and friends of Rotary. It was originally endowed in 1917 with a $26.50 contribution and now has an endowment of over one billion dollars. The Rotary Foundation has a Four Star Rating from Charity Navigator and is highly respected in the philanthropic world. In addition to a discussion about various funds maintained by the foundation, PDG Eddie described several ways Rotarians can contribute and various recognitions and awards available to clubs and individual donors. Lawrenceburg Rotarians and the local club have been consistent supporters of The Rotary Foundation and its programs for many years.
