Mayor Lay discussed various projects in the city including extension of Motivation Drive to Buffalo Road and a planned extension of Springer Road to Good Hope Road. He also spoke of planned expansions to the city’s parks including a new gym complex being proposed for construction on land recently acquired along Jackson Street at Rotary Park. Economic development in the city has been brisk with the new Magna plant expected to open in the spring or summer of 2025 plus various other projects. According to Mayor Lay, the biggest challenge facing the city is expansion of utilities which will be needed to support expected growth over the next ten years.
