Eight Pillars of Positive Peace

- Well-functioning government
- Sound business environment
- Acceptance of the rights of others
- Good relations with neighbors
- Free flow of information
- High levels of human capital
- Low levels of corruption
- Equitable distribution of resources

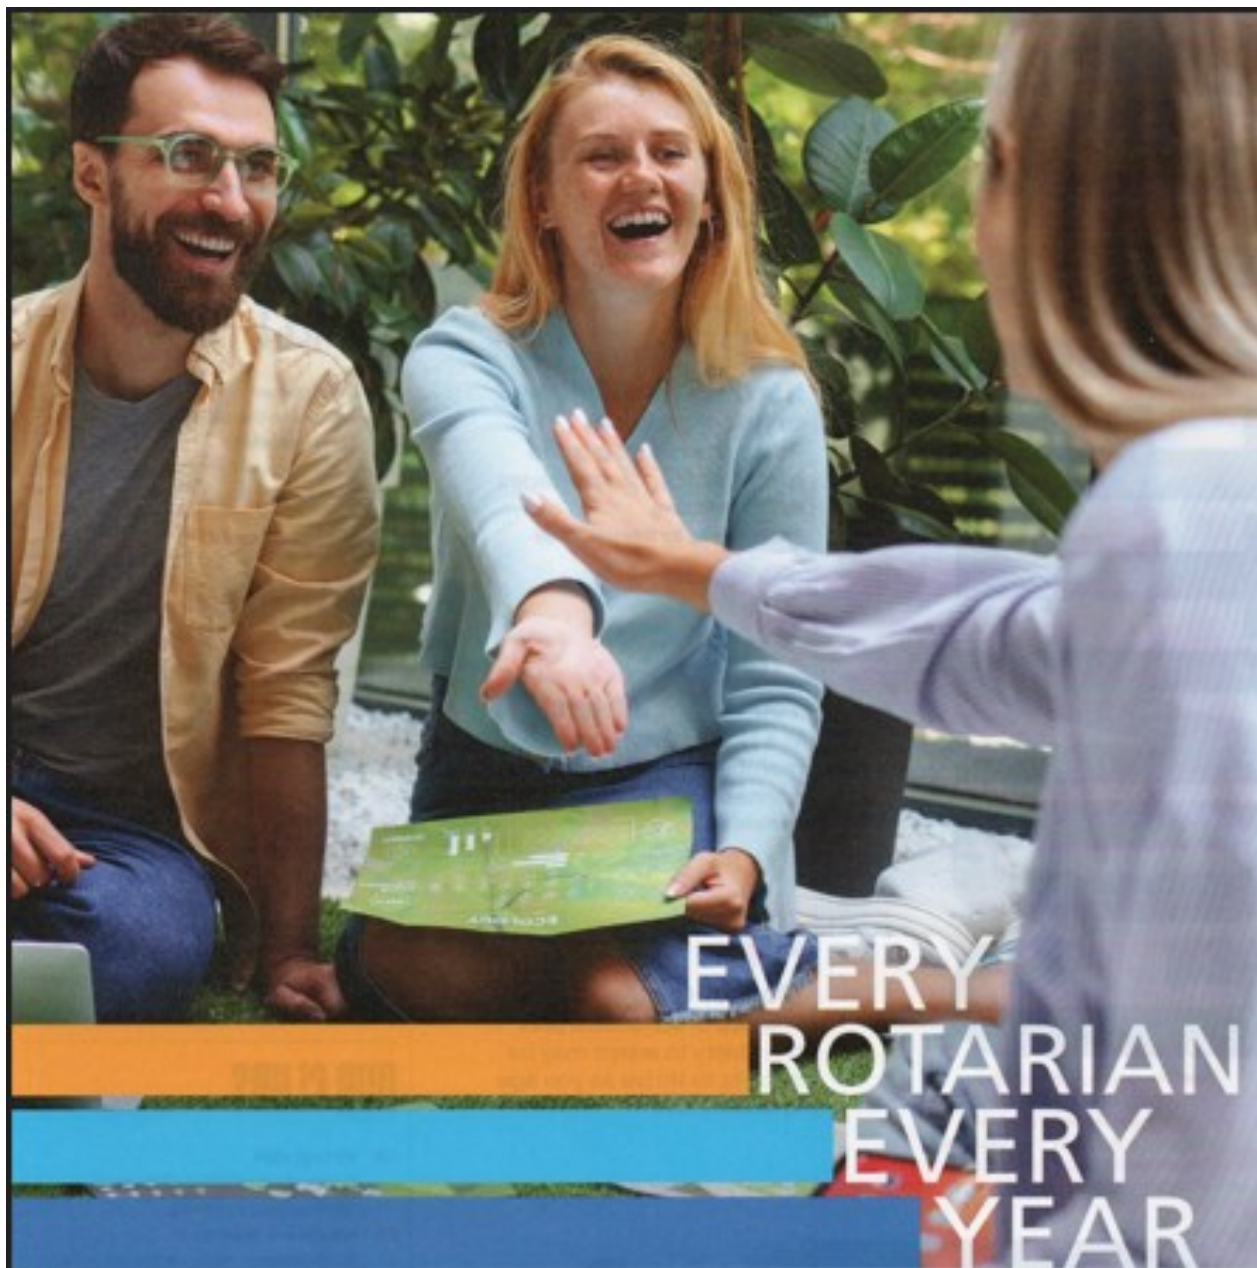

You may think that peace is a distant topic for places like Ukraine and Israel, and not relevant to Tennessee. But peace is more than simply the absence of war. It is the containment of violence, and both feeling safe and being safe in one's community. It embodies all the characteristics that impact our quality of life -- a well-functioning government; a sound business environment; acceptance of everyone's rights; good relations with neighbors; free flow of information; high levels of human capital; low levels of corruption; and fair access to resources. (These are known as Eight Pillars of Positive Peace.)
